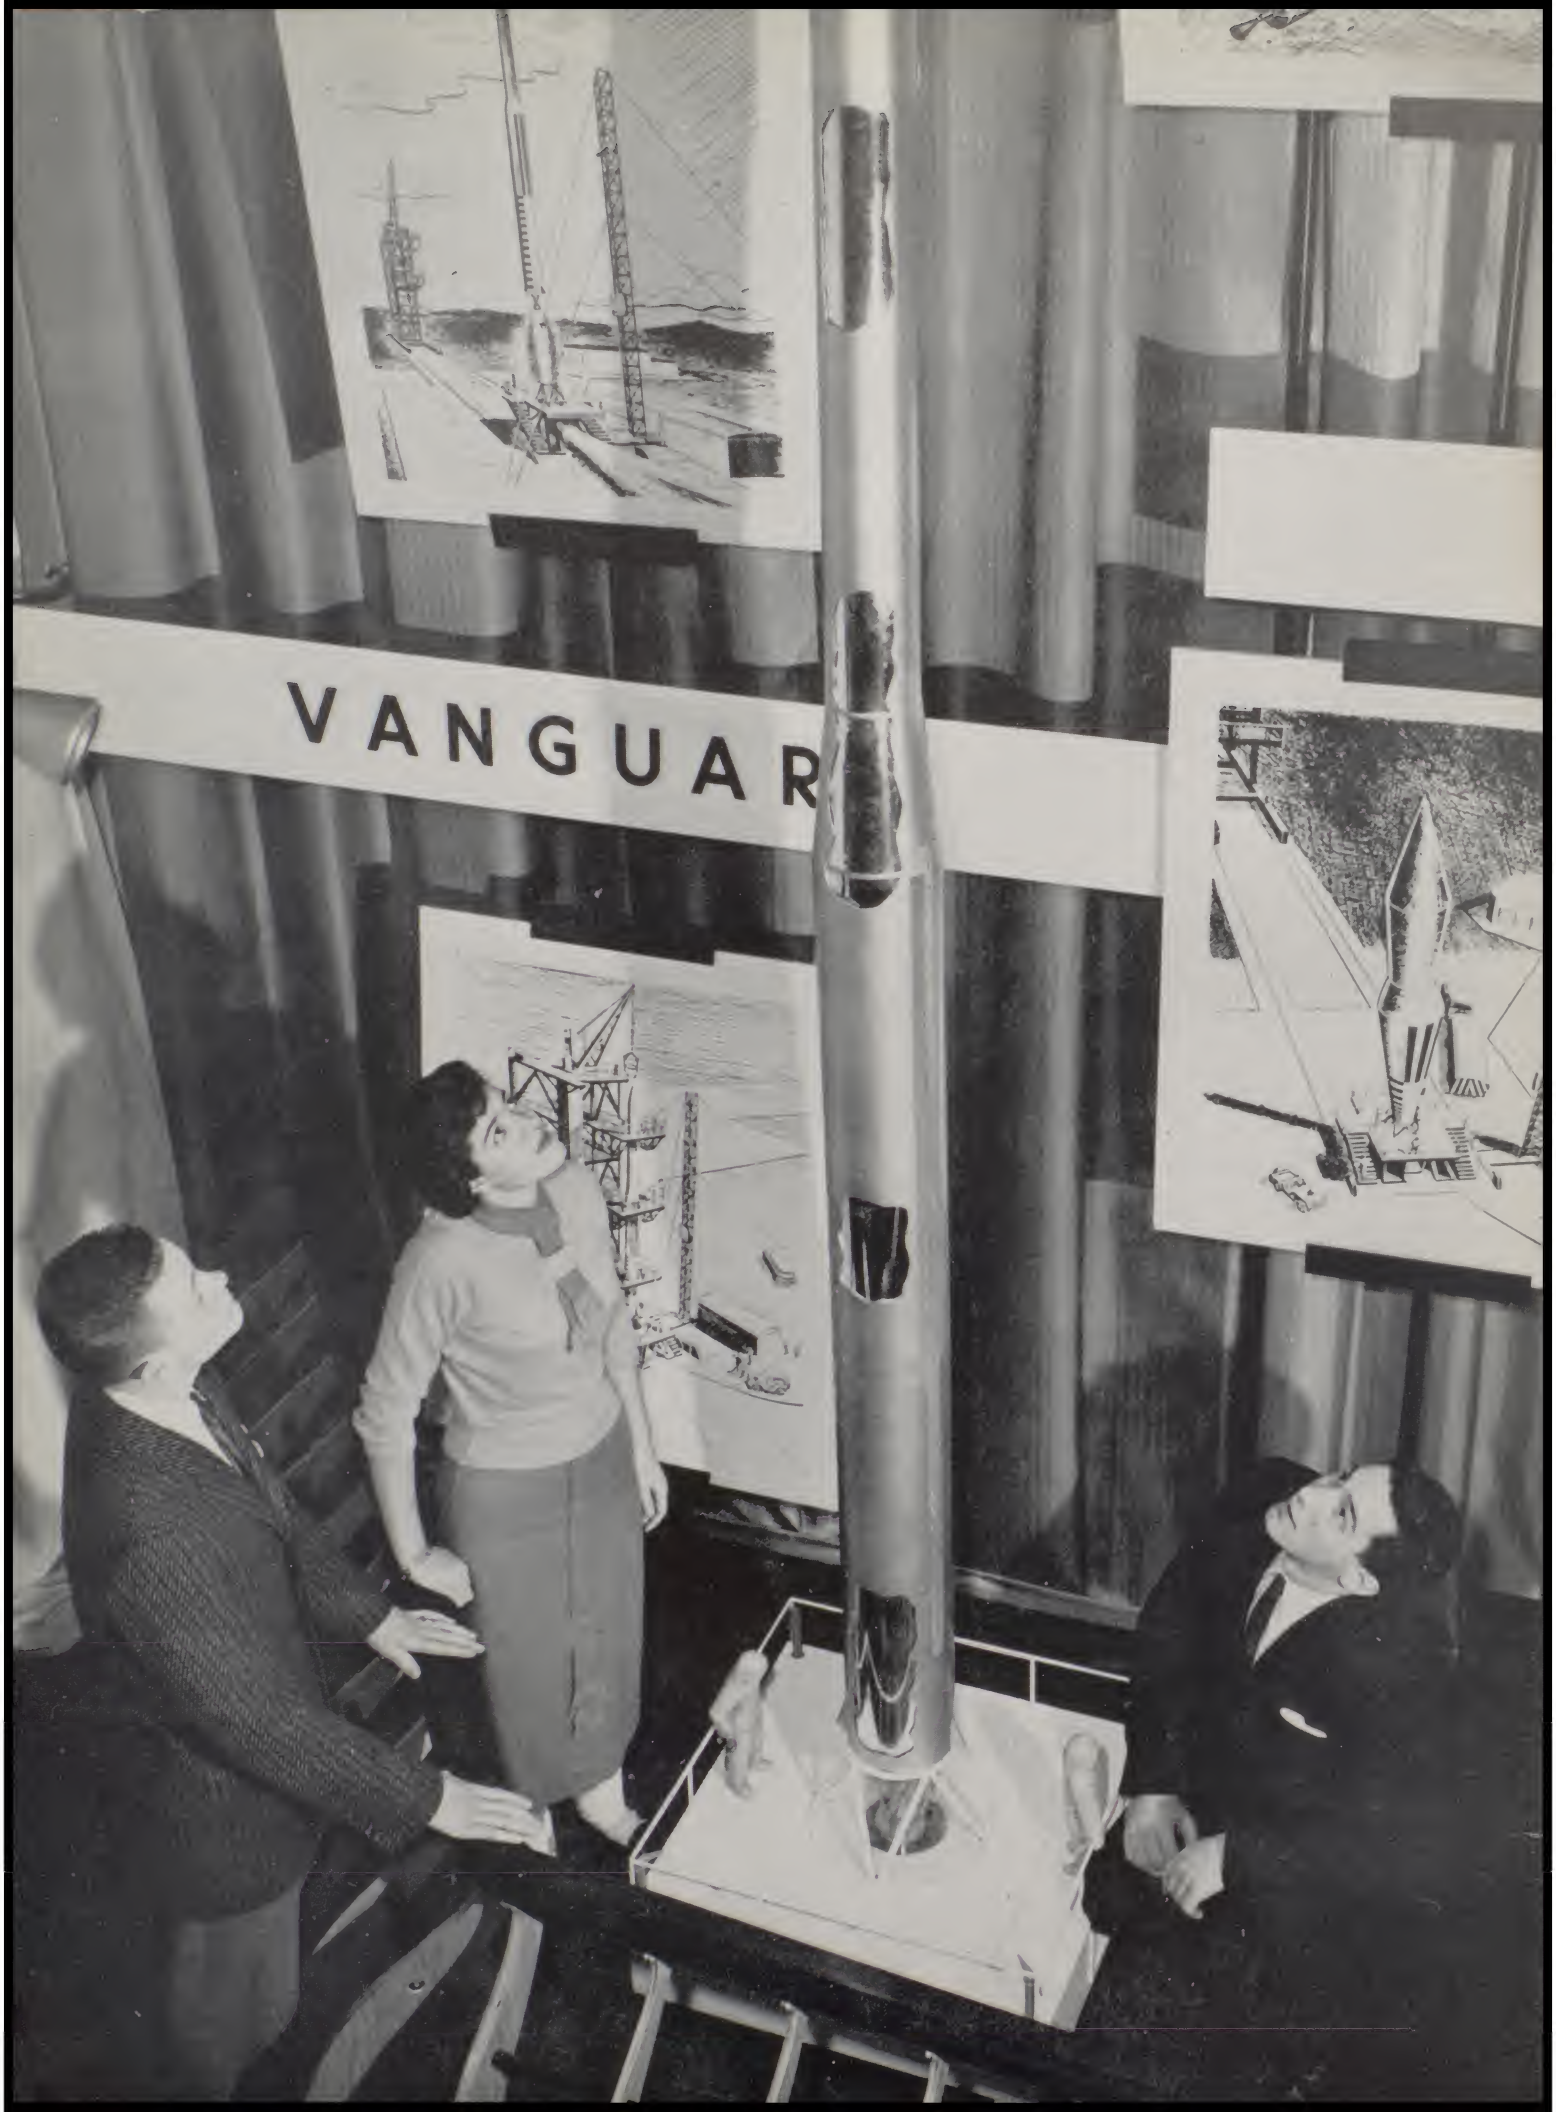
THE NEW LOOK



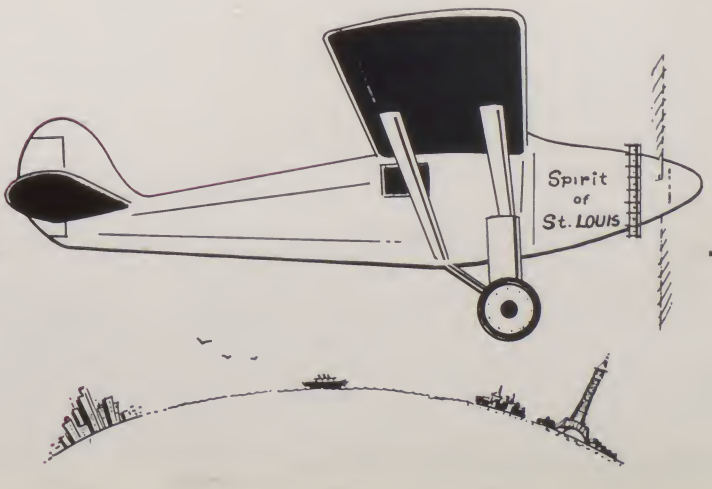
VANGUAR

A TALE OF TWO GENERATIONS

THE AGE OF REBELLION TO THE AGE OF REASON

Science splits the atom, hurtles a satellite into space, and the children of the hour seek security in a universe at once too small and too immense. Since science has proven the sky's no limit, today's "no-nonsense kid" builds himself a safe and sensible world. Rebellion and "flaming youth," like Lindbergh's "Spirit of St. Louis," are museum pieces. Goldfish-swallowing and flagpole-sitting are not for the youth of 1958! The symbol of this age is the satellite, its keyword, reason.

Reflecting the increased interest in science, Bruce Norgan, Charmaine Berg, and Murray Averbach attended an exhibition at the Chicago Planetarium of the model of the Vanguard rocket which placed a satellite into orbit on March 17.



THE NEW LOOK

FASHIONS

"Trousers baggy and our clothes look raggy" from "Colleciate," a bit of the Twenties, does not apply to 1958 youth. Karen Jensen, Linda Randall, Karen Hine, Ron Lis, Phyllis Ponto, and Bill McGrath like the Ivy League look.

The flapper of the twenties shingled her hair, raised her skirts above her knees, and shocked her elders by slathering on rouge and mascara. The male population, not to be outdone, responded with raccoon coats and bell-bottom trousers. Today's fashions are no longer an outward symbol of inner revolt. The popularity of the natural look—crewcut and pony tail, the Ivy League suit, the sweater and skirt—reflects the conservatism and the stability of 1958 youth. Only the sudden popularity of this spring's chemise contradicts the basic pattern.

RECREATION

A muted discussion on Russian aggression or segregation, the Four Lads in hi-fi, and lots of pizza and coke—it's a far cry from the scratchy "Boop Boop A Doo," raucous Charleston contests, and "makin' whoopee" of the twenties. Television's Maverick and psychological movies like Bridge on the River Kwai have stolen the spotlight from Rudolph Valentino and the "It Girl," Clara Bow. Hemingway's lost generation of The Sun Also Rises has given way to Sloan Wilson's The Man In The Grey Flannel Suit.

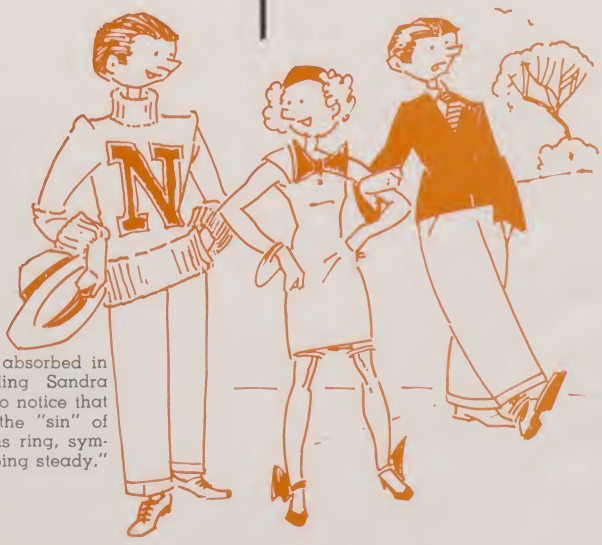
THE NEW LOOK

MANNERS AND MORALS

The flapper of the twenties with her chain of beaux would be shocked to meet the daughter of the fifties, content to have on her chain just one boy's ring. Teens "go steady," sometimes miss the fun of stag lines, but really believe they "like one person best." Rebellious youth of the twenties "kicked over the traces" so that today's youth looks on smoking, drinking, and petting not as gestures of defiance but as matters of personal and moral choice.



Lennie Larsen is so absorbed in the scenery, including Sandra Brumley, he forgets to notice that she has committed the "sin" of forgetting to wear his ring, symbol that they are "going steady."

GOALS

No "get-rich-quick," "burning the candle at both ends" life for the "no-nonsense kid." His dreams of the future do not include living on the left bank in Paris or traveling on an African safari. Oh, he may discover a cure for cancer or be the first to land on the moon, but more likely he'll be an advertising executive or an accountant and travel on the 5:15 to his wife and children in their suburban ranch home with the picture window.

A pensive Tom Baumann stands before Northwestern University's Deering Library thinking of the years of study that stretch ahead.

SPUTNIK CHALLENGES U. S. EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM

The challenge by Russia's Sputnik to United States' superiority has caused a re-evaluation of our educational system and a shift of emphasis. Changes being clamored for include more advanced subject matter for gifted students, more emphasis on science and mathematics, and, in general, better secondary academic preparation. Dr. James Killian, Special Assistant to the President for Science and Technology, said, "At this point in the evaluation of our school the highest priorities should be given to better provision for our intellectually gifted young people." Niles has given reality to this demand by providing accelerated mathematics, science, social studies, and English courses, which enable the bright students to progress at a pace in keeping with their talents.

Students in Honors Reading judge novels, poetry, and drama by the aesthetic principles, pictures of which were designed and painted by Sherry Annex and Lillian Hoffman. Roslyn Virgilio explains the principle of Interest to Judy Godell and Alex Maurizi.

TEN PER CENT OF NILES STUDENTS ARE ENROLLED IN ACCELERATED COURSES

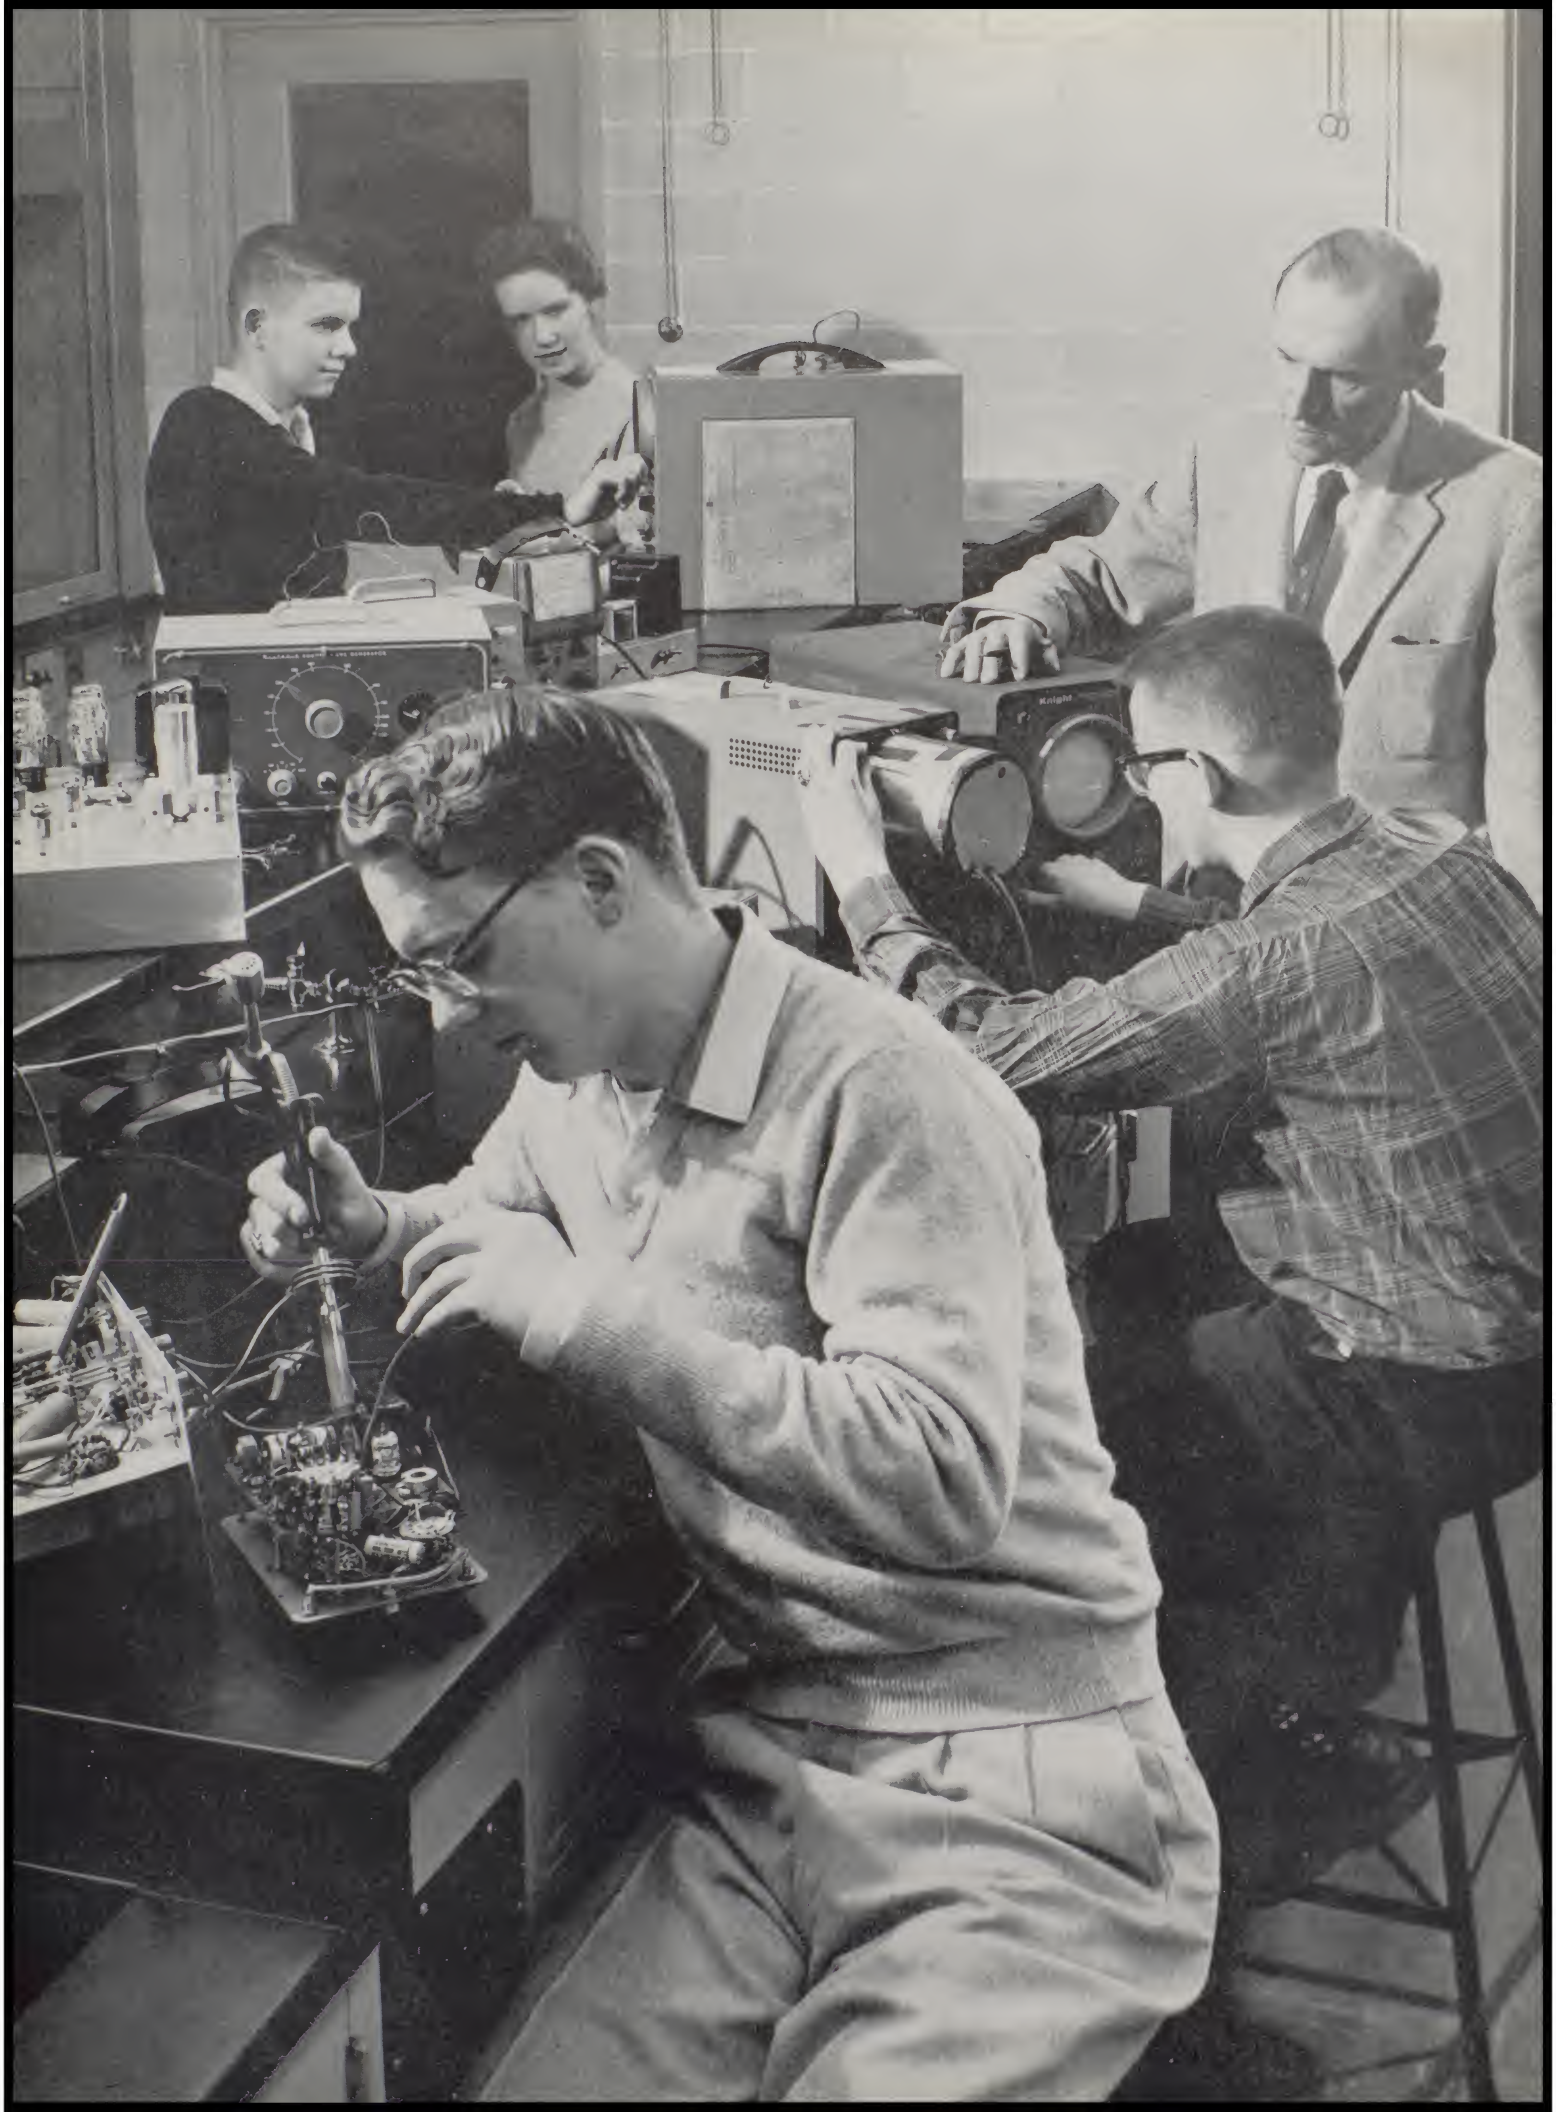
Pauline Cotell, Mark Peppercorn, and Patricia Feil, Advanced Biology students, study the amoeba and paramecia, minute protozoans, under the microscope.

In the sophomore Advanced Geometry class Bernard Kravitz, Gene Veto, and Judy Fulkerson show the class how to circumscribe a circle about a given triangle.

In Advanced Chemistry, Judy Bolin, Bill Dutton, Jim Iverson, Gail Braverman, Alex Maurizi, and Jay Doney learn to measure the degree of ionization by titration.

Ten per cent of the student body are enrolled in accelerated courses. Honors Reading, which requires a student to have a "B" or better average in English and to have taken Composition I, emphasizes the social and psychological aspects of novels, poetry, and drama; Mathematical Analysis, which requires a student to have taken accelerated algebra and geometry, emphasizes basic ideas of mathematics rather than problem-solving techniques; Accelerated Physics, which requires a special recommendation for enrollment, emphasizes depth of study and inquiry, rather than breadth. Next year additional accelerated courses will be offered, including a second year of Mathematical Analysis, which will be an introduction to analytical geometry and calculus. The gifted student, stimulated and challenged, will eventually repay mankind.

Analyzing "cost of living" graphs in Economics are Joe Stout, Nina Nipper, Dan Lang, and Dennis Blevitt.



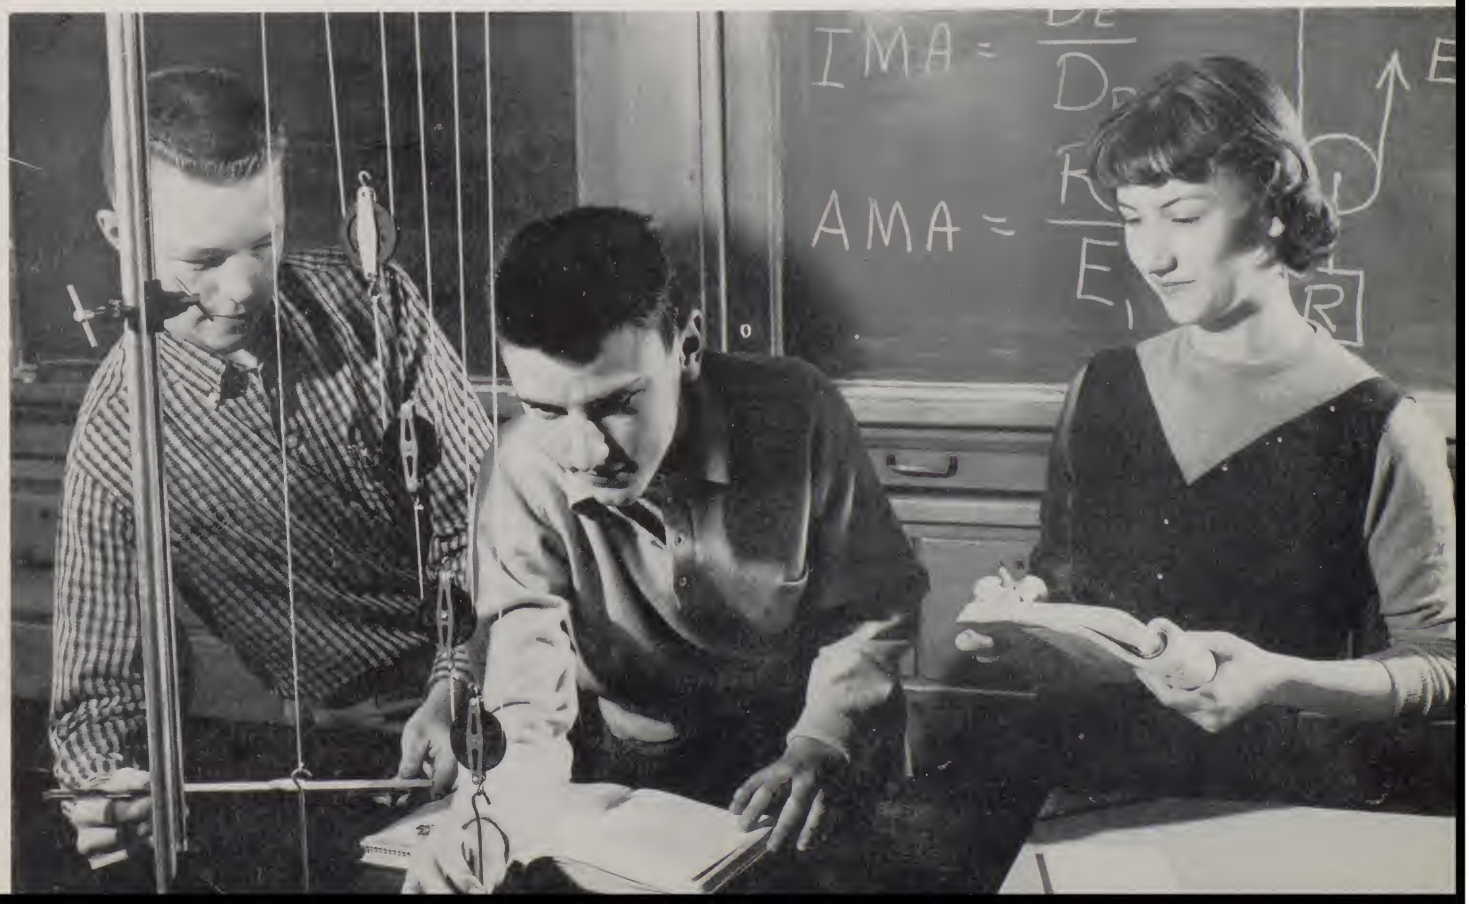
SCIENCE SEMINAR STIMULATES SCIENTIFICALLY GIFTED STUDENT

"Sputnik, more than any other circumstance in my lifetime, has caused the American people to look critically and — I hope — thoughtfully at our entire educational enterprise." Milton Eisenhower voiced this opinion in an interview in U.S. News in February, 1958. This lagging of the United States behind Russia has caused us to re-examine our educational system, particularly in the fields of mathematics and science. Although students in many secondary schools graduate without courses in these areas, at Niles twenty-seven per cent of the students in the regular curriculum take advantage of the advanced science program. Niles has also pioneered the Science Seminar, which encourages gifted students to spend ten to fifteen extracurricular hours a week exploring science. This program, developed by Jacob Shapiro, is now directed by Dr. Evelyn Tyner. The funds necessary to supply laboratory facilities and materials come from the Berg Foundation, set up by Joe Berg, grandfather of Stanley Berg, a member of the Seminar.

Alex Maurizi, Jay Doney, Jim Iverson, and Gail Braverman use Burrette tubes to determine the percentage of solute in a solution of hydrogen chloride.

At G. D. Searle & Co., where some students are working on electronic projects, Mr. Harrison S. Backus, Seminar staff member and research engineer at G. D. Searle, looks on as Douglas Marshall tunes in an intricate wave he has just generated. Douglas Spengler does a tricky bit of soldering on a vacuum tube volt meter, and (background) Mary Maselli and Ronald Krischke check the distortion level of an audio generator.

Bruce Norgan supplies the mathematics, and Pat French records the data as Kent Krause positions the weight in evaluating a complex pulley system in Accelerated Physics class.



Jim Iverson explains spherical applications of solid geometry to Al Freedman, Bill Swinyard, Mike LeVine, and John Hederick.

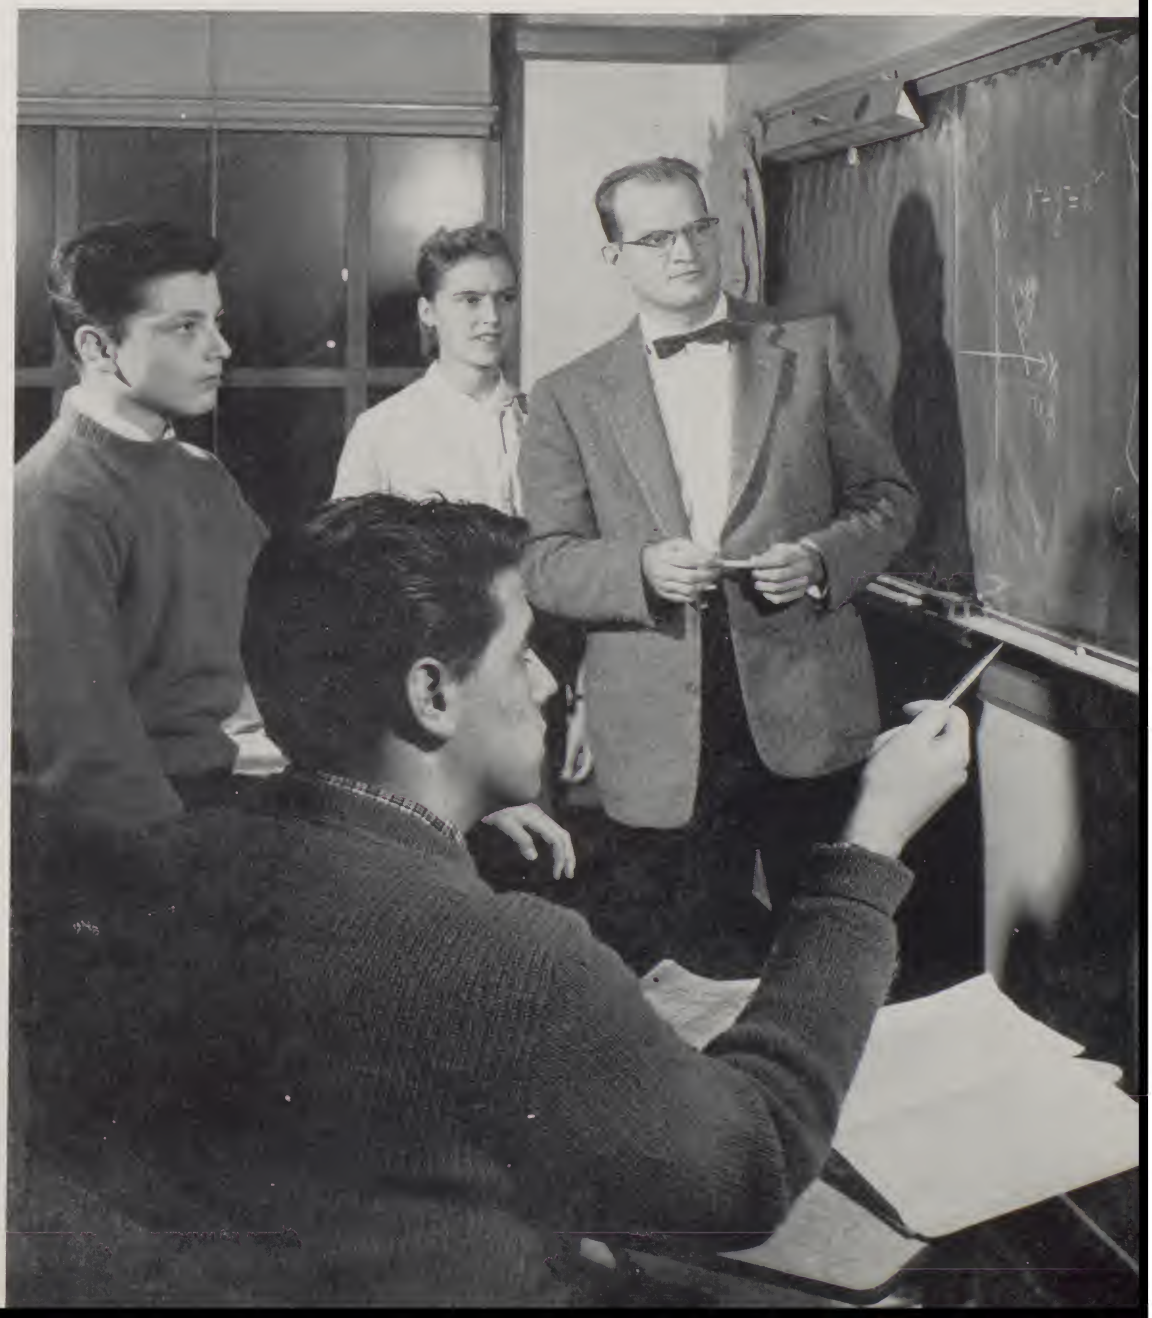
TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT TAKE ADVANCED MATHEMATICS

Although only thirteen per cent of upperclass secondary school students in the United States take mathematics, twenty-five per cent of the upperclassmen at Niles are enrolled in four advanced mathematics courses: Advanced Algebra, Solid Geometry, Trigonometry, and Mathematical Analysis. Such courses enable gifted and interested students to work up to their capacity, laying a firm foundation for advanced study in the universities.

In addition, Niles has extended the idea of the Science Seminar to the field of mathematics by inviting sophomores in their second year of the accelerated mathematics program to meet weekly to discuss those mathematical concepts which cannot be taught in the classroom. It is believed that the additional informal discussion groups will help prepare the accelerated student for advanced placement upon entering college.

Larry Messe, Charles Kadish, and Karen Sandstrom study the passing of planes through cones at various angles producing circles, hyperbolae, and ellipses at a meeting of the Math Seminar which is under the direction of Mr. Robert Pruitt.



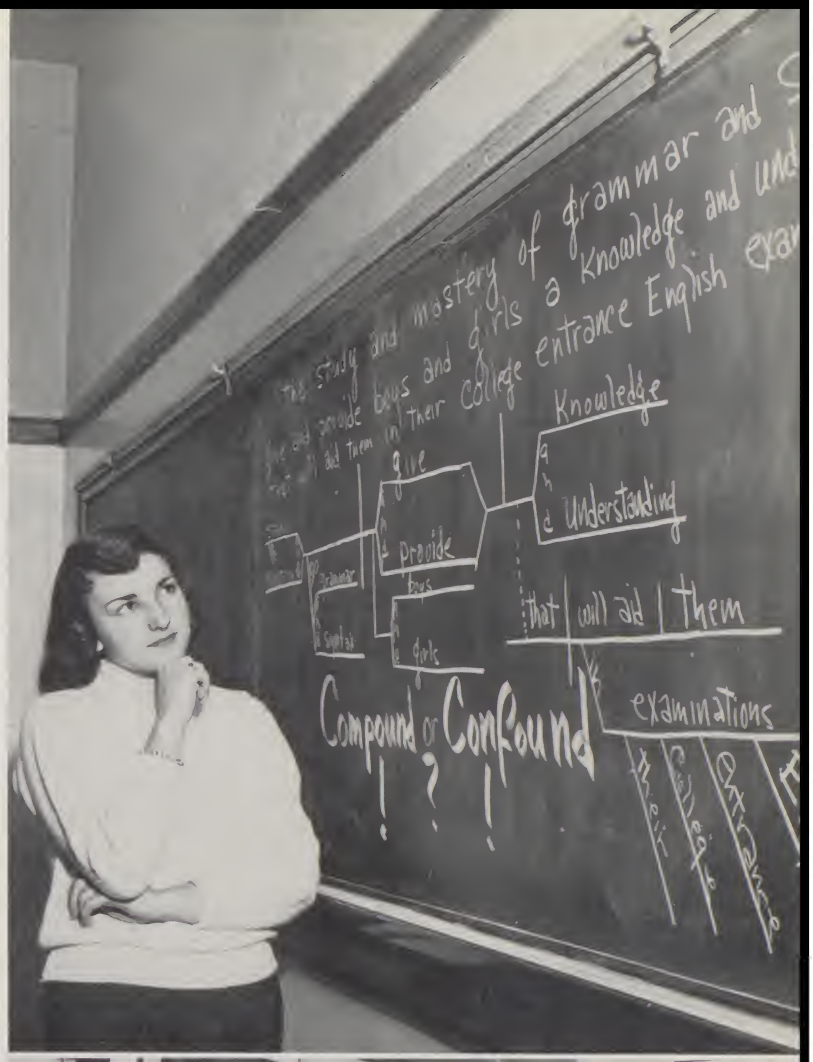
COLLEGE PREP CURRICULUM STRESSES THE HUMANITIES

Seventy per cent of the students who graduated from Niles last year entered college in the fall. College planning begins in the freshman year with students deciding on a curriculum best suited to their goals and the college of their choice. The college preparatory curriculum requires three two-year sequences (mathematics, science, and a foreign language), one three-year sequence (social studies), and one four-year sequence (English). However, many students go further than the required number of years in the above sequences. For example, eighty-two per cent of the senior class are enrolled in a fourth year of English; thirty-three per cent are enrolled in chemistry. In the junior class, twenty-four per cent of the students are enrolled in physics, and thirty per cent are enrolled in advanced algebra. Thirty-three per cent of the students in both classes are taking a foreign language.

Having diagrammed the sentence in freshman English, Carol Flaherty sees that it is complex, not compound.

Jackie Munry and Rochelle Silverstein read Macbeth, while Suellen Mills and Don Samuelson discuss scenes from Hamlet as part of their studies of Shakespeare in English Literature class.

Sherry Annex, Sarah Smith, Rayna Garfield, and Lois Gerber find their feminine wiles cannot compete in interest with the Oxford Dictionary, which Dick Young consults in Composition class.



To speak Spanish fluently is the goal of third year Spanish students Georgeanne Rateike, Karen Hine, and Gary Krauss.

The problem of the "Cold War" between Russia and the United States is a frequent topic of discussion in United States History class. Carolynn Kuchar, Larry Kipperman, Harriet Paskind, and Irwin Katz use the globe to locate the provinces of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

THREE YEARS OF LANGUAGE STUDY GIVE STUDENT INCREASED FLUENCY

Cicero (Gary Roubinek) at an open forum meeting accuses Catiline (Bernard Roos) of conspiracy against the state. A sympathizer (Burton Feingold) consoles Catiline as spectators (third year Latin class) look on.

NILES RETAINS THE BEST OF PROGRESSIVE EDUCATION

Dr. Rinehart believes that the "modern school must provide a well-balanced curriculum" and that the "individual needs of each student should be met." Criticism of the excesses of progressive education, which has permitted the substitution of courses like "basket weaving" for the fundamental disciplines, must not result in the abandonment of the basically sound tenets of modern education. The stress on individual differences and the insistance on educating the whole child should be retained. At Niles, life adjustment courses include Freshmen Social Studies in which students are helped to understand not only their own capabilities and personality traits, but also the society in which they live. At the more mature level, senior students in Family Living are given instruction in such units as marriage and family responsibilities, child development, and insurance. Whereas Family Living helps students to better understand their private world, Sociology helps them to understand the many problems of the rest of the world.

Linda Johnson, Ronnie Jaman, John Franks, Nancy Overton, Bill Neumann, and Jaye Miller, students in Freshmen Social Studies class, answer questions pertaining to their personal adjustment after having read and discussed pamphlets on social and vocational problems.

CURRICULUM MUST RECOGNIZE INDIVIDUAL DIFFERENCES

Despite the current emphasis on homogeneous groupings for the gifted, more courses in mathematics and science, and better academic preparation for college, Niles continues, in the best tradition of modern education, to provide excellent vocational courses for those students who plan to go directly into the working world. Future secretaries, majoring in business education, have the opportunity to study typing, shorthand, and secretarial and clerical practices. Woods, electricity, metals, printing, and auto mechanics are offered to boys who plan to use these skills in future jobs. Future home makers learn how to cook and sew properly in Home Arts Laboratory. All these courses prepare the student for work immediately following graduation.

Architectural Drawing students Nancy Ambrose, Roger Stone, and Ann Stern hope that one day they will see homes of their design constructed in the United States.

Wiring "mock" rooms are future electricians Gary Graeff, Leslie Sayles, and Charles Richter. They are cautious not to overload the circuit because they might blow a fuse.

The central committee of S. S. O., composed of Roslyn Virgilio, Bill Ihne, John Hederick, Gary Krauss, Nancy McAvoy and directed by Mr. Roth (Advisor), consider adapting a new seating chart system for S. S. S. H.

John Hederick (Head of S. S. S. H.), period supervisors, Bill Connell, Bill Ruyle, Terry Tobin, Bill Ahlberg, Allan Johnson, and head secretary Margo Calamaras, are members of the board which supervises study halls.

INCREASES THE RESPONSIBILITY OF S. S. O.

One of the concepts of the "new look" in education is student supervision of students. Carrying their responsibility effectively, the students of Nilehi had the 1957-58 program for S.S.O. (Student Service Organization) already in operation in late July. This program began with the Central Committee, composed of Bill Ihne (Student Service Organization Head), John Hederick (Student Supervised Study Halls Head), Gary Krauss (Student Supervised Monitors Head) and Roslyn Virgilio (Student Service Organization Head Secretary), choosing the monitor captains and study hall supervisors. Having selected the most competent people for their positions, the Central Committee began the arduous task of changing schedules, assigning periods, and designating duties to the newly chosen captains and supervisors. Because of the efficiency and early planning of the Central Committee, Monitor Captains, and Study Hall Supervisors, the complete S.S.O. system began on the first day of school, September 9, thereby eliminating extra work for the faculty.

However, by the end of the first semester a need for a new division became evident. A new service division known as S.S.D. (Student Service Division), whose duty it is to supervise students in the library and also to check hall lockers, began functioning at the beginning of the spring semester.

Bill Ihne and Roslyn Virgilio discuss a new regulation of S. S. D. concerning warnings to students for leaving lockers open.

Student Services Division, organized in second semester, checks lockers and regulates passes in the school library. The S. S. D. Board is composed of Manfred Malz, Bob Glassberg, Penny Boom, Alex Spiegel, Dick Elke, Jim Tansor, and Roslyn Virgilio.

STUDENT COUNCIL DIVIDES INTO EAST AND WEST

This year, with two divisions, the Student Council split into two groups, East and West. Most important of their combined projects was the United Fund Drive, which was held in the East Division during February and in March in the West Division. The drive combined the former separate appeals for the Red Cross, the March of Dimes, and Lee Min Soo, the Korean orphan whom Niles supports. The two groups also sponsored buses to the away games.

In addition, the East Division Student Council sold Niles sweatshirts and bookcovers. In the fall, the Council sponsored and planned the coronation of the Homecoming Queen, an activity which will become an annual tradition. Biggest project of the West Division was the plan to have an exchange student come to Niles next fall. Throughout the year the Council worked on such student welfare projects as a staggered schedule for six-weeks' exams. The Student Lounge, which was open daily in Room 16 during fifth period, was Council sponsored.

NILEHILITE ACQUIRES A "NEW LOOK"

Although columns such as "Inquiring Reporter" and "Getting to Know . . . " are familiar to students, the Nilehilite does have a "new look". Because the split shift schedule necessitated having the paper printed outside of school, the format and size of the paper had to be changed. The new Nilehilite is five columns by sixteen inches and varies from four to eight pages, whereas last year the paper was only three columns by ten inches and varied from eight to sixteen pages.

But some things are still the same. After assignments are made on Wednesday, journalism students in Miss Mary Konstans' classes still rush through the halls trying to waylay hard-to-catch teachers. The Friday deadline having been met, the editors begin the tedious process of correcting copy, making "lay-outs," writing headlines, and proof-reading. Excitement runs high in 219 the following Friday when, at last, the Nilehilite is distributed.

STUDENTS THRILL TO SEE CREATIVE WORK IN PRINT

Members of the Golden Galleon Guild, under the direction of Mrs. Parepa Rice, had the Gargantuan task of choosing the manuscripts to be published in the literary magazine which was presented to Guild members at the annual banquet for new members held on June 3 at the Tally-Ho Restaurant. In the fall, the Guild sold subscriptions to magazines to finance Nilehi's Golden Galleon.

Silver Clipper, the West Division literary club, directed by Mr. Richard Gragg, sponsored a square dance, "Rhapsody in Hay," to raise money for Golden Galleon. Members also read and rated manuscripts submitted by the West Division for publication.

YEARBOOK

Other senior members of the staff, Vicki Averbach, Tom Baumann, Lillian Hoffman, and Sue Weiss decide on a layout for the faculty section of Reflections.

STAFF CONTRASTS 1958 YOUTH WITH THE JAZZ AGE

Comparing the teenager and the school of 1958 with those of our parents who had their day in the "Roarin' Twenties," the yearbook staff developed a theme "The New Look" which was light and enjoyable, but also serious. To secure authentic material for copy, the staff sent out questionaires to parents to find out what they did, believed, and hoped for when they were in high school. Then, questionaires were also given to seniors concerning every phase of a teenager's life—manners, morals, recreational activities, fads, beliefs, and goals.

After the background information had been tabulated, the general routine of work began. With the assistance of Mrs. Mary Ida McGuire, the yearbook sponsor, the dummy was laid out, pictures scheduled, and copy written. With the help of the Senior Section, the April deadline was met. The long awaited moment arrived when members of the staff received their Reflections at the Yearbook Banquet and found that the "New Look" came to expectations. And why not? The Russians with Sputnik and even Paris with its chemise fashions cooperated to make more timely the "New Look" theme.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTS THIRTY-FOUR

Getting that "A" you've struggled for all semester, making Reflections Revelry, or having your poem accepted for Golden Galleon are high points of any high school career. Election to National Honor Society, the Phi Beta Kappa of the secondary school, however, tops any other recognition. Juniors and seniors who have maintained a "B" average are eligible for membership; however, the final choice of three percent of the juniors and nine percent of the seniors is made by the faculty on the basis of service, leadership, and character.

On March 26, fifteen seniors and nineteen juniors, before proud parents and teachers, were inducted into the Society. The awarding of pins and roses and the symbolic lighting of the candles was conducted by those twenty-four seniors who had been inducted the previous spring.

NILES PLAYS HOST TO ONE HUNDRED DEBATERS

On January 11, Nilehi Debate Team was host to debaters from eighteen high schools. Fifty teams, one hundred students, participated in the tournament. In addition, the Debate Team attended eight other tournaments. The subject for the year was; "Resolved: The United States should increase foreign aid." The varsity and sophomore teams, with twelve varsity debaters and eighteen sophomores competing, had a total record of seventy-nine wins and eighty-six losses. Russ Kofoed, senior, received the Degree of Distinction from the National Forensic League.

Twelve other students interested in speech activities competed in the annual American Legion Oratorical Contest held in April. Under the direction of Mr. Van Arsdale, students from both divisions prepared speeches concerning an aspect of American life and delivered them to a selected group of students.

SEVENTY PIECE BAND IS THE LARGEST IN NILEHI'S HISTORY

The 1958 edition of the Niles Township concert band, directed by Mr. Leo Provost and Mr. Charles Groeling, represents the most ambitious band program ever attempted at Niles. The full seventy pieces, the largest band in the history of the school, presented precision drills and sparkling routines, built around such themes as "Dad's Day," during half-time of the football games. The music at pep assemblies and basketball games gave school spirit a big boost. After months of practice, including extra rehearsals, the band presented on April 27 before a capacity audience, a program including the overture from "The Barber of Seville" and "Suite of American Dances".

The intermediate and beginning bands serve as training bands in which beginning musicians gain that valuable experience needed to perform as members of the concert band.

"KEEP IT GAY" FEATURES MUSIC FROM MY FAIR LADY

Major production of the music department was the musical comedy Keep It Gay, presented on April 18 and 19 under the direction of Jill Linn and Rick Ricordati, assisted by a committee of eleven who supervised scenery, props, costumes, lighting, makeup, dance, tickets, programs, and publicity. Accompanied by the orchestra, three hundred members of Choir, Vivace, and the Glee Club, directed by Mr. Hugh McGee and Mr. Earl Auge, sang such hits from My Fair Lady and The King and I as "Get Me To The Church on Time," "Hello, Young Lovers," and "I've Grown Accustomed To Your Face."

In addition, the musical groups presented the traditional Christmas Vespers program on December 15 and the May Festival on May 25. Interest in vocal activities is high at Niles which has, in addition to the highly selective Choir, Vivace, and Barbershoppers, four girls' and one boys' glee club.

The Barbershoppers keep alive such songs as "Sweet Adeline" and "In The Evening By The Moonlight." Back Row: M. Malz, R. Bartsch, C. Trendler, L. Janson, G. Wanaski, D. Guess. Third Row: P. Rosner, A. Pearson, B. Bem, D. Eckel, J. Hildebrant. Second Row: J. Benson, J. Erickson, S. Pearson, N. Walf. First Row: S. Smith, M. Samole, R. Levin, B. Piper, J. Hebblethwaite.

The Hi-Y club at Niles has been serving the school and community for eleven years. The Hi-Y citizenship award, given last year to Karen Hine and Tom Baumann, and the Hi-Y Scholarship, awarded to a worthy senior, are two of its many worthwhile projects. Leadership is an important quality developed by Hi-Y, and this year one of its members, Ken Grubb, was President of the Metropolitan Chicago Hi-Y Council. In addition to such interesting programs as a speaker on lie detectors and a resume' of exciting experiences on the ice by two Blackhawk hockey players, the club entertained members and their fathers at the Dads and Lads Banquet on March 17. The Formal induction, held on February 23, stressed the true purpose of Hi-Y, the fostering of high standards of Christian character.

West Division officers sponsored a dance with the West Division Tri-Hi-Y. Back Row: Bronson Davis, Chuck Engstrom, Larry Mills. First Row: Curt Swanson, Don Kornelly, Bob Longfield.

FOUR HUNDRED GIRLS PARTICIPATE IN

Blue Tri-Hi-Y officers, Carol Dankowski (Vice-President), Jill Linn (President), Adrienne Lee (Chaplain), Arlene Pfaff (Treasurer), and Vicki Day (Secretary), plan club meetings, one of which featured a speaker from the Patricia Stevens School of Modeling.

White Tri-Hi-Y officers, Janet Masters (Secretary), Karen Jensen (Vice-President), Barbara Kretschmar (President), Nina Nipper (Chaplain), and Nancy McAvoy (Secretary), invited Mr. Sortal, the basketball coach, to one of their meetings to explain the sport to members.

Hemming diapers for the American Red Cross and preparing Christmas stockings for the under-privileged children were two service projects planned by the officers of the Gold Tri-Hi-Y, Linda Randel (Vice-President), Margo Calamaras (Chaplain), Alice Merwitz (President), and Carole Maurus (Secretary), and Linda Hubbard (Treasurer).

TRI-HI-Y

Tri-Hi-Y members Lynn Eggers, Noel Ostrom, Margo Calamaras, and Ann Ide sing a gay calpso during the Homecoming parade.

Tri-Hi-Y with a total membership of 400 is the largest club at Niles. Ti-Hi-Y, East Division, this year split into four separate groups: Blue, Gold, Red and White. These clubs meet on the same night, however, and occasionally have combined meetings. At Christmas, the whole group went caroling together. Individual clubs usually center their meetings around a guest speaker. For example, the girls learned about football and basketball from Mr. Basrak and Mr. Sortal and discovered how to "capture" the athletes from a Patricia Stevens model. The club also sponsored their annual after the game dance "Mad Moods II" following the New Trier basketball game.

West Division Tri-Hi-Y also gave "Mystic Moments", a semi-formal dance with a Mardi Gras theme. During the holiday season the club gave a party for the children at Lydia Home. The biggest event of the year, however, will take place when school is over. The entire club is going to spend the weekend of June 13 at Lake Geneva.

THESPIANS DESIGN STAGE SETS AS WELL AS ACT

Officers of West Division Spotlighters are S. Seegren, J. Fulkerson, L. Bilson, S. Becker.

"Act well your part; there all the honor lies." This National Thespian Society motto expresses the "new look" in attitudes toward dramatics at Nilehi. No longer is "thespian" synonomous with "actor" only. If one is not the "Dino" type, he will perhaps be more useful changing complicated stage sets; even if he has a weak back, he can attain the dignity of "Thespian" by acting as prompter.

A cast of nine, with Sue Backus in the leading role of Bridget Mac Gowan, under the direction of Miss Virginia Stemp, opened in the Broadway comedy A Roomful of Roses on May 8. The fall production, the George S. Kaufman comedy Stage Door, was a change of pace from Dino, a study of a juvenile delinquent, presented in the spring of 1957. Spotlighters, directed by Miss Deanna Thompson, "acted their parts" in two one-act plays, They Tried Him With . . . and My Cousin From Sweden.

Spotlighter officers Lynn Eggers, Noel Ostrom, Rick Riccordati, Sue Backus, Karen Rosenquist, and Carol Dankowski discuss the production of My Cousin From Sweden.

Thespians make sets, apply make-up, and take care of props as well as act. Back Row: S. Weiss, N. Messer, M. Skolnik, D. Swanson, R. Riccordati (Sergeant-at-Arms). Second Row: M. Derman, S. Levin, M. Calamaras (Vice-President), J. Godell (President), T. Conners (Treasurer), J. Eischen, M. Marks. First Row: C. Cooperman, J. Erickson (Secretary), L. Eggers, B. Deitch (Recorder), V. Fazio.

The staging of the 1957 spring play "Dino" was no small task. Bringing order out of chaos are B. Ruyle, B. Barranco, L. Burkhart, S. Goldberg, M. Sugarman, R. Edidin, L. Eggers, J. Wilson, T. Conners, D. Wold, J. Godell, M. Skolnik, M. Hagman, E. Keuper, G. Keuper, M. Pollack.

"A ROOMFUL OF ROSES"

Having learned to mistrust people all his life, juvenile delinquent Dino (Fred Hodges) is reluctant to speak freely even to his case worker (Norm Garland). Concerned are his parole officer Mr. Mandel (Mike Levine) and Miss Haines (Gayle Beckway).

In the fall play "Stage Door" Terry (Priscilla Davidson), the female lead, is admired for both her dramatic ability and for her attractiveness by eccentric Keith Burgess (Mike Skolnik) and David Kingsley (Murray Averbach).

Tom Conners, Elizabeth Wood, Ron Raben, and Barbara Deitch in Stage Door are all set for a big night in New York on ninety-five cents!

OPENS ON MAY 8

When more subtle temptations fail, the women try pulling to get a man! Bill Pfalum is pulled by Marcia Kamps and Penny Johnson on one side, on the other by Elissa Goodman, Carol Peterson, and Paula Svedlund. The matchmakers who started all this, Betty Smart and Lynette Bilson, observe the fun from the sidelines in "They Tried Him With . . ."

CLUBS GROW OUT OF

West Division Foreign Language Club presented a program at which bilingual faculty members spoke to members in German, French, Spanish, and Greek. Standing: S. Aronin, G. Neimark, J. Fulkerson, C. Spirrison. Seated: J. Calamaras (President), T. Gordon, P. Johnson, K. Norgan (Vice-President), P. Bradley, J. Lovering (Secretary), S. Schwied, and J. Young (Sergeant-at-Arms).

Spanish Club officers Nancy Lotz (Secretary), Bill Connell (President), Elaine Pass (Treasurer), Mr. DaRosa (Sponsor), Sheila Erdmann (Sergeant-at-Arms), and Karen Rosenquist (Vice-President) look forward to the spring vacation trip to Mexico.

Latin Club officers Mike Sachs (Treasurer), Sharon Hunt (Secretary), and Judy Erickson and Burt Feingold (Co-Presidents) plan the decorations and program for the spring banquet.

Officers of "Le Cercle Francais" Marlene Derman (President), Carolyn Schweig (Vice-President), Connie Steiner (Program Chairman), Judy Borik (Treasurer), and Judy Link (Secretary) decide upon guest speakers and movies for the monthly French Club meeting.

INTEREST IN SCHOOL SUBJECTS

Extra curricular activities enrich the classroom learning of students in the foreign language and other departments. The spring trip to Mexico, chaperoned by Mr. Don Blair and Mr. Gentil DaRosa, gave students studying Spanish the opportunity to meet the people of this "South-of-the-Border" land. Latin club members, sponsored by Miss Lois Lamberg, re-lived the days of ancient Rome by participating in a marriage feast at their banquet held on May 16. Most exciting for members of the newly organized 'Le Cercle Francais", sponsored by Miss Jean Hagemann, was the spring banquet held on March 21 at the Silver Parlor in Old Orchard. The West Division Foreign Language Club took their members "Around the World in Thirty Minutes" by means of a program of music and costume.

German Club executive board members Phyllis Groah (Social Chairman), Holly Freeman (Program Chairman), Jeannean Babcock (President), Mary Jane Beisman (Vice-President), Betty Stine (Secretary - Treasurer), Alice Pazen (Program Chairman), and Carolyn Roeltgen (Reporter) make plans for their annual Christmas party. Miss Kay Beck is the sponsor.

S. Aronin points out characteristic features of a Gila Monster as other members of Nilehi's Biology Club look on. Standing: Mr. Hussey (Sponsor), C. Spirrison, B. Kravitz, D. Rappaport, I. Hoffberg, N. Harris, R. Greenman, S. Berg. Seated Around Table: S. Aronin, G. Neeveach, W. Jacobs, L. Karzen, S. Krawitz, N. Hoover.

Members of Pins and Pens meet to discuss future plans while working on gifts for orphans. On ledges: G. Sullivan, A. Weber. Seated: J. Nilson, D. Singer (Secretary-Treasurer) M. Biesman, S. Limbos, B. Johnson, R. Matzick, L. Rodish, B. Kreegier, D. Loutsch, A. Matson, N. Lotz (President).

Officers of the 100% Club practice those skills necessary to the efficient operation of a modern business office. Alice Pazen (Treasurer) uses an adding machine to simplify accounting while Vinnie Fazio types a business letter. Carol Stier (Editor) helps Anne Finzel (Vice-President) lay out a stencil as Lois Gerber (President) takes telephone dictation.

The tournament organized by the West Division Chess Club holds the interest of S. Osserman, B. Gaines, G. Levinson (Captain), Mr. Adams (Sponsor), B. Snyder, G. Brower, R. Benson, L. Lissner, S. Goodman, R. Benson, I. Hoffberg, G. Templar (Secretary-Treasurer), M. Block, I. Massing, L. Bromberg as they "battle it out" for the championship.

CHESS, RADIO, SKI CLUBS SATISFY VARIED INTERESTS

The Officers of the East Division Future Nurses' Club, Sharon Hunt (Corresponding Secretary), Marirae Kimberlin (Vice-President), Carol Dankowski (Secretary), Beverly Laing (Treasurer), and Kay Naylor (President) work with Miss Jean Massman (Sponsor) to plan trips to nearby schools of nursing. This organization has the distinction of being the only one of its kind in Cook County.

CAREER AND SERVICE CLUBS GIVE PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

Now an official chapter of the Future Teachers of America, Bonnie Martin, President of Teachers of Tomorrow, shows the board members their charter. Seated: J. Leftwich, L. Randel, H. Freeman, M. Lewis, G. Halbreich (Vice-President), K. Rosenquist (Secretary), D. Kariolich (Treasurer). Standing: C. Elenewski, H. Paskind, L. Hoffman.

Members of the West Division Future Teachers of America club explore their own abilities and interests as related to opportunities in teaching. Back Row: B. Epstein, M. Dunn, J. Cook, R. Winstead, S. First Row: B. Meyerhoff (President), S. Goldstein, J. Petersen, L. Sclar, D. Berger, Y. LeMieux, F. Nelson, F. Gordon, R. Withall.

Audio-Visual Aids operators have the task of showing to students almost 400 films rented by the school as well as the many films owned by the school. Back Row: B. Norgan, E. Green, H. Taxin. First Row: A. Canter, J. Enenstein, M. Singer, R. Rudolph, J. Murray, D. Nelson, J. Doney, C. Ragland, M. Malina.

ATHLETICS

WIN, LOSE, OR DRAW – TEAMS AND FANS WANT TO "BE A GOOD SPORT"

Life Magazine this year did a feature on wrestling, an increasingly popular sport. Carl Bonfiglio is all tied up with his Wheaton opponent.

Cooper (Sergeant-at-Arms), T. Baumann (President).

"N" CLUB RAISES THE STANDARDS OF ATHLETICS

The goals of the "N" Club one of largest boys' clubs in school, are to raise the standards of athletics at Nilehi and to improve relations between the faculty and students. The primary method used to achieve these goals is the "N" Club-Faculty basketball game held annually on February 11. The proceeds of this year's game were used to purchase a whirlpool bath, a device used in treatment of muscle injuries, which was donated to the athletic department. The "N" Club, sponsored by Mr. Basrak, Mr. Byram, and Mr. Frala, is open to all boys who have won major awards in varsity athletics.

"Hey, let me down from here!" Mr. Schubert finds himself on top of Terry Tobin during the "N" Club-Faculty game. Bill Reading (left) blows time out as Mr. Skuban and Jim Van DerVelde look for the ball.

CHEERLEADERS

"KEEP OUR COLORS FLYING HIGH"

Sophomore cheerleaders Marilyn Holtz, Sue Brownlee, Jackie Hillstrand, and Anita Musgrave and freshman cheerleaders Nancy Del'Aringa, Karen Stryker, Jaye Miller, and Wendy Belgarbo have really "got that spirit."

Pep Club, an organization of Nilehi fans, is directed by Miss Jeanette Oehler and officers Judy Gruber, Sue Brownlee, Carolyn Roeltgen, Marilyn Carlson, and Judy Frankfort.

TROJANS CLIMB TO FIFTH PLACE
FINISH IN SUBURBAN LEAGUE

Head Coach Mike Basrak, line coach Nick Odlivak, and end coach Harry Sortal look forward to an even more successful season next year.

Ed Jaster, one of the top Suburban League backs, demonstrates how he averaged seven yards per try. The Trojans went on to beat Highland Park 27-0.

The varsity season ended with three wins and four losses, an improvement over previous years. This record was due to a strong defensive line headed by Ron Chez and Don Samuelson. Holding down the Wildkits of Evanston to minimum gains at every try, Niles was the first team to score against Evanston in their fourth game of the season. High point of the year was the Proviso game in which, fighting in six inch mud, the Trojans scored a tired and frozen victory, 13 to 12. Ron Chez was chosen the all Suburban League offensive and defensive first team guard. Dave Wicker, Ron Stone, Ed Jaster, Tom Baumann, Don Samuelson, and Bill McGrath also received all Suburban League honors. Seventeen returning lettermen next year, bolstered by outstanding Junior prospects, should give Niles the best year yet.

Bill Dutton, Bill Savas, an unidentified Trojan run interference for Tom Baumann who gained 10 yards for a first down against Highland Park.

The first Suburban League victory! Ed Jaster sprints twenty-nine yards for the first touchdown of the season.

Bill Savas, Ed Jaster, Bill McGrath, Ron Stone, and Ron Chez crush a Morton ball-carrier. The final score was Niles 20, Morton 14.

The sophomores won four of their eight grid contests this year. This successful season was the result of a comparatively new outlook on the part of the coaches, Mr. Coyer, Mr. Skuban, and Mr. Bauer. Placing less emphasis on winning games, the coaches made the building of skillful, experienced players for the varsity their number-one objective. As a result, the sophomores were a team composed of coordinated units, each having increased blocking and tackling accuracy and, working together, a deadly passing attack. Functioning as a whole, the team showed the results of a season of work and practice directed toward the achievement of their well-chosen goal by crushing a strong Waukegan team in the last game of the season. Bolstered by a number of new players this year, the sophomores offer a promising outlook for next year's varsity.

FROSH OPEN AND CLOSE SEASON WITH VICTORIES

The first day of freshman football practice was spent in learning how to put on equipment, the last in beating out a victory. Between these two memorable days the coaches, Mr. Schnurr, Mr. Maggio, Mr. Lyerla, and Mr. Brown, crammed bruised heads with football fundamentals, and later, supplementary information and techniques. The frosh opened their season with a promising victory over Arlington, 32-14. The following week they made a brilliant showing as they battled and bruised (and some say whipped) a tough New Trier team, even though the score did not show it (New Trier 12, Niles 0). Then, as the flu epidemic took a heavy toll, they lost their next five games (only one by more than two touchdowns). When they were again able to field a representative starting team, they bounced back, steamrolling Waukegan 12-0.

HARRIERS PLACE FOURTH IN SUBURBAN LEAGUE MEET

This year's cross-country men found that running in unfavorable weather, garbed in a pair of shorts and sleeveless shirt, didn't make for good health. Cold weather and Asiatic flu, however, didn't stop the two-milers, especially Jerry Keidel. Running the designated two miles in 9:51 against Oak Park, he established a new school record. In the final two meets the varsity beat Waukegan and Glenbrook by 25 and 9 points respectively. The most impressive showing, however, was at the Suburban League Meet, where the team placed fourth. With the return of lettermen John McGinnis, Bill Nack, Bruce Stein, and Dick Lund, a sophomore, next year's outlook is good.

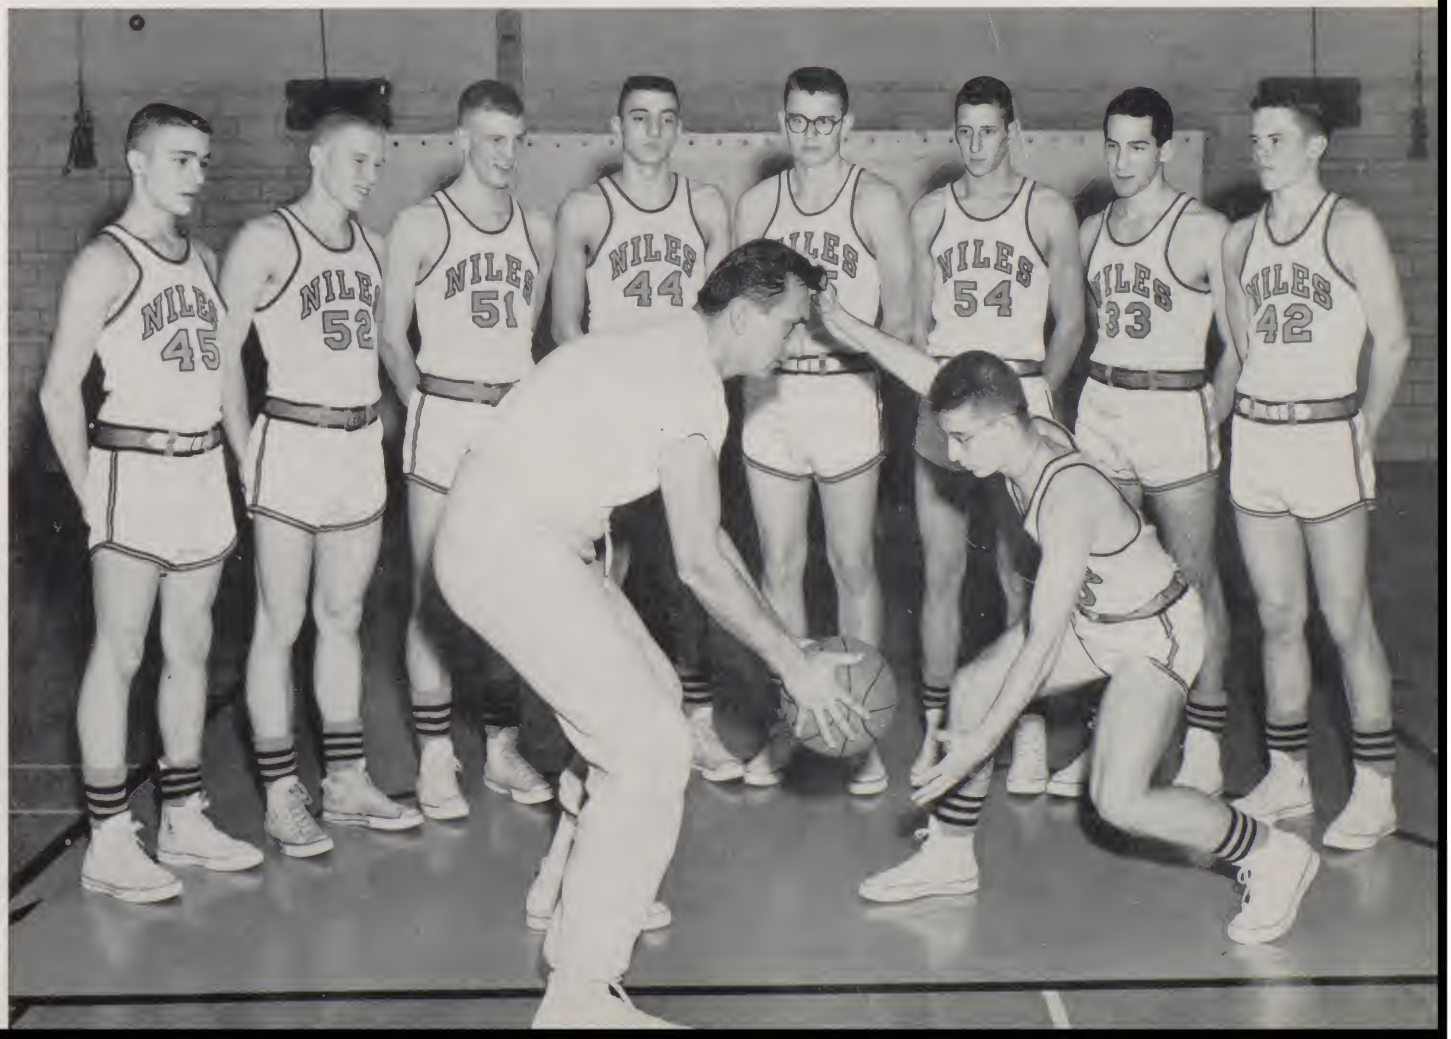
SCORER IN SUBURBAN LEAGUE

The varsity team just couldn't get started this year. Niles began the season by losing an overtime contest to Leyden, and then went on to lose ten games by close scores to stiff Suburban League competition. With only four League games remaining, Niles was still waiting for the first win. Then the Trojans handed an overwhelmed and surprised Morton a marked upset. The final score was 56 to 52. The only other League win was against Waukegan, 50 to 36. In the first regional game Niles beat the host school, Palatine, 56 to 46, avenging an earlier defeat.
Although the team had few wins to boast of, it did have Jerry Keidel, the League's high scorer. Jerry scored 240 points during the League season, an average of 17 points per game. He was chosen as first string forward on the All Conference and All Northern Illinois teams.

Jerry Keidel drives around a Morton defender for two points. Although Keidel scored 31 points in this game, Niles lost 63-59.

Mr. Sortal and Tom Baumann demonstrate the proper defensive position. Observing are Bill Nack, Jerry Keidel, Bill Ihne, John Dragisic, Bill Reading, Bill Johns, Murray Averbach, Ron Lis.



Captain John Dragisic tips in two points against the towering Oak Park team. The Trojans lost this game 62-53.

John Dragisic takes to the air and uncorks his deadly jump shot against Leyden in the Holiday Hardwood Tournament. The Trojans were defeated in this game 51-38.

Jerry Keidel shows the delicate shooting touch which gave him the Suburban League scoring championship. In this game against Morton, he scored 33 points as Niles triumphed 56-52.

This year's sophomore team, coached by Mr. Phipps, won three and lost thirteen, four of which ended with not more than three points separating the Trojans and their opponents. The team first lost to Oak Park (56-54), then to New Trier (41-38), and then to Morton (47-45). Finally, the determined Trojans won a close one against Evanston (37-36). The team finished the season by beating Palatine in a non-conference game (45-39). The shooting of Jim Dahlman and the rebounding of Frank Warda will be valuable to the varsity next year.

Jim Dahlman leaps high into the air to shoot over his Morton defender. Niles lost by two points, 47-45.

JUNIOR VARSITY FINISH THIRD IN LEAGUE

Playing a twelve game schedule, the junior varsity basketball team, coached by Mr. Hoosline, finished the season with a 7 won, 5 lost record, which won them third place in the final Suburban League standings. Highlight of the season was a thrilling up-hill battle against a strong Morton team with Niles overcoming a first-quarter twelve point deficit to gain victory in the final seconds of play. The team's success can be greatly attributed to defensive alertness, good rebounding, and the employment of the fast break to good advantage.

Due to lack of height and inability to score at crucial moments, the frosh-soph basketball team was unable to turn out a better record than 2 won, 10 lost this year. Despite repeated disheartening performances, members of the squad, coached by Mr. Bauer, maintained excellent team spirit and morale throughout the season and consistently showed their ability to remain tough and spunky even when the outcome of a game looked dismal. Bronson Davis was the chief scoring threat for the frosh, and George Buchanon led the team in rebounding. With additional height, these boys promise to be part of a more successful team in the future.

TANKSTERS SMASH TEN SCHOOL RECORDS

Nilehi tanksters established ten new school records this year, seven on the varsity level, and three others (at last count!) at the hands (or fins?) of the frosh-soph squad. Coached by Mr. Schubert, varsity men broke the following records: the 200 yard medley relay by D. Oakes, J. Iverson, B. Feingold, and D. Morgan; the 20 yard free relay by D. Oakes, C. Breen, D. Morgan, and J. Iverson; the 400 yard free by N. Carberry; the 200 yard free by P. Karafotas; the 150 yard individual by P. Kalifortas; the 100 yard back by D. Oakes; and the 100 yard breast by J. Iverson.

Records broken by members of the frosh-soph squad, coached by Mr. Brown and Mr. Skuban, were: the 200 yard medley relay by R. Kirshner, R. Lamme, M. Magnus, and D. Katz; the 150 yard free by D. Katz; and the 50 yard back by R. Kirshner.

GRAPPLERS WIN EIGHT, LOSE SEVEN

This year's Trojan grapplers finished the season with an eight won and seven lost record. However, with only two of the ten major award winners (Ron Chez and Ron Johnson) graduating, and six of the major award winners (Bill Maerle, Bill McGrath, Bruce Herkert, Bob Dilg and Jack Cooper) returning for their third year of varsity competition, prospects for next year's team are excellent. Bill McGrath, who was elected next year's captain, and Ron Chez, who was chosen most valuable wrestler by his teammates, advanced to the state finals. Although they did not finish among the top four in their classes, they did gain enough points to make Niles the thirty-first best wrestling team in the state The Frosh-Soph team, coached by Mr. Maggio, finished the season with a ten won, five lost record.

LINKMEN DOWN MAINE FOR FIRST WIN

The varsity golf team, composed of five seniors and four juniors, has been practicing since early April. This practice has shown results in the average team score. This year's team average is eighty-four; at the same point in last year's season the team average was eighty-seven. Bob Johnson, a senior letterman, and Dave Magnuson, a junior, with scores in the low eighties had the low scores in the team qualifying rounds held at Arlington Country Club. In the opening meet of the season the linkman dropped a close decision to Palatine 8½-6½. In the second meet of the season the powerful New Trier team defeated the Trojans 12-3; although the team score was heavily in favor of the Green Wave, the individual matches were close. The team finally broke into the win column by defeating Maine 11½-3½.

TROJANS PITCH FOR SECOND SUBURBAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

Will the members of Nilehi's varsity baseball team be able to repeat last year's memorable performance of closing the season in first place as Suburban League Champions? The Trojans have swept all five of the games played so far, three of them by decisive scores: 10-6 (Maine), 8-0 (Arlington), and 9-1 (Glenbrook). Against Morton, in the single Suburban League game played to date, the Trojans showed their ability to play winning baseball when, with two out, Jack Berg singled, stole second, and was driven in to break a seventh (last) inning tie, giving the Trojans the game!

Ron Lis, Bill Ihne, and Ron Chez, all members of last year's All-Suburban League Baseball Team, have played outstanding defensive baseball for the Trojans, with Chez, for example, retiring seven of the first eleven men he faced in the Arlington game by strikeouts! Chez, who finished the season last year with the astounding record of six wins and no losses, already has four of the Trojans' five wins to his credit.

Coach Jim Phipps, who is responsible in large part for the Trojans' success, predicts that "with the right breaks, we should take the Suburban League Championship again this year."

With the season just underway, four freshman baseball players have collected two broken legs, a broken knuckle, and a smashed finger! Despite the loss of these key men, the freshmen, coached by Mr. Schnurr and Mr. Odlivak, have won their Suburban League opener against Highland Park (2-0) and a pre-season contest with Oak Park 12-4).

Although the sophomores have lost their League opener to Highland Park (8-1), prospects for the season look hopeful, considering the pre-season whippings handed out to Oak Park (11-5) and Arlington (8-0). Highlight of the season so far was the thrilling no-hitter pitched against Arlington by Mike Hirschtich, promising young sophomore. The strong right hander struck out nine while walking only two of the Cardinal players.

Bill Ihne, a fine defensive as well as offensive player, makes a long stretch to grab a wide throw from the hot corner.

CINDERMEN ENCOUNTER STIFF COMPETITION

Bill Hess, Frank Fortuna, and Bill Bell, varsity sprinters, get set for a 100 yard dash.

Handicapped by a lack of proper training facilities, the varsity track team has found competition extremely stiff in early season meets. In previous years the team practiced in the halls until warm weather; however, as a result of the double shift, indoor practice has been impossible this year. Despite eight returning lettermen (Frank Fortuna, Roy Swenson, Tom Baumann, Hans Jung, Earl Arnold, Gary Krauss, Dick Pankey, and Bill Bell) the team has lost four of its early season meets. In these early season meets most of Niles' points have been won by four boys: Frank Fortuna, 100 yard dash and 220 yard dash; Roy Swenson, high jump; Tom Baumann, 440 yard dash; and Murray Averbach, discus throw and shot put.

The frosh-soph team, for the second year in succession, has a record turn-out. Over one hundred aspirants checked-out equipment. Led by sophomore Jim Calamaras, the frosh-soph team has a one won and two lost record. Calamaras, a one man track team who runs the 180 yard low hurdles, the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash, and the 880 yard relay, has scored over thirty points in three meets.

NETMEN OPEN SEASON WITH A 5-0 WIN OVER GLENBROOK

The varsity tennis team entered the Suburban League competition this year with a non-conference record of one win and two losses. The first of the three matches was against Glenbrook. The Trojans of the varsity and frosh-soph teams scored 5-0 shutouts. The varsity then lost to Arlington and Maine by scores of 4 to 1 and 5 to 0. Coach Frank Markus is relying on six returning lettermen (Johnson, Carlson, Eichhorn, Glessberg, Vander Velde, and Hodgkinson) to make this year's season a successful one.

SPLIT SCHEDULE HANDICAPS G. A. A. PROGRAM

Although handicapped by the split shift, the G.A.A. has continued its program. The West Division has been able to have a sports program including volleyball, basketball, tumbling, Junior Ripplettes, softball, and horseback riding but, due to lack of space and facilities, the East Division has had only a Bowling Club and Senior Ripplettes. Despite the limited sports program ,the G.A.A. has continued its social activities. The G.A.A. float, a pink seal, won first place in the Homecoming Parade. The G.A.A. also sponsored the Christmas dance, "Pine Paradise" and also the Annual Spring Turnabout. Parents' Playnight, "Nursery Nonsense," gave an evening of fun and fellowship to G.A.A. members and their parents.

To develop leadership ability, the G.A.A. sent Jean Dunn and Iris Sonkin to G.A.A. Leadership Camp. To encourage a high degree of scholarship the G.A.A. awards the Arlene M. Merz Memorial Scholarship to a senior girl entering health, physical education, or related fields. Eileen Corr was the recipient of this scholarship for 1957. Through these activities, both social and athletic, the G.A.A. strives to promote sportsmanship, leadership, and cooperation, as well as fun and fellowship.

Diane Meinke of West Division G.A.A. Board shows the trophy awarded annually for the Arlene M. Merz Scholarship to Board members Barb Eckel (Volleyball), Marge Ostermeier (Basketball), Dee Olson (Basketball), Karen Perona (Volleyball). Seated: Sydney Goldberg (Softball), Pam Engstrom (Tumbling), and Doris Swanson (Horseback Riding).

Jeannean Babcock (Treasurer), Jean Dunn (Vice-President), Iris Sonkin (President), and Babs Krumsieg (Secretary) meet each week to work on sports schedules, plan dances, and keep the G.A.A. running smoothly.

SPECIAL EVENTS

GOING STEADY ASSURES A DATE FOR THE BIG EVENTS OF THE YEAR

G.A.A. took first prize for the second year with their seal float.

The 1957 Homecoming parade was by far the loudest, longest, and most colorful in Nilehi's history. A twenty foot seal, which flapped its flappers and juggled a ball, won first prize for the G.A.A. Although the team did not "bounce them on their nose" as hoped, not even the 22-0 defeat by Oak Park, could ruin our day of days.

Homecoming '57, too, had its "new look" which is to become a tradition at Niles-a Homecoming queen and her court. Chosen by the respective classes were senior Adrienne Lee, the first Homecoming queen, and her court of two seniors, Phyllis Bronis and Marlys Johnson, and two juniors, Sandra Brumley and Lee Isel. The queen and court presided over the parade and game, and that evening with the pomp of a Westminster coronation, Miss Lee was crowned by varsity football captain, Ron Chez. Music, roses and glittering gold — "The Crowning Glory" was just that to a glorious day!

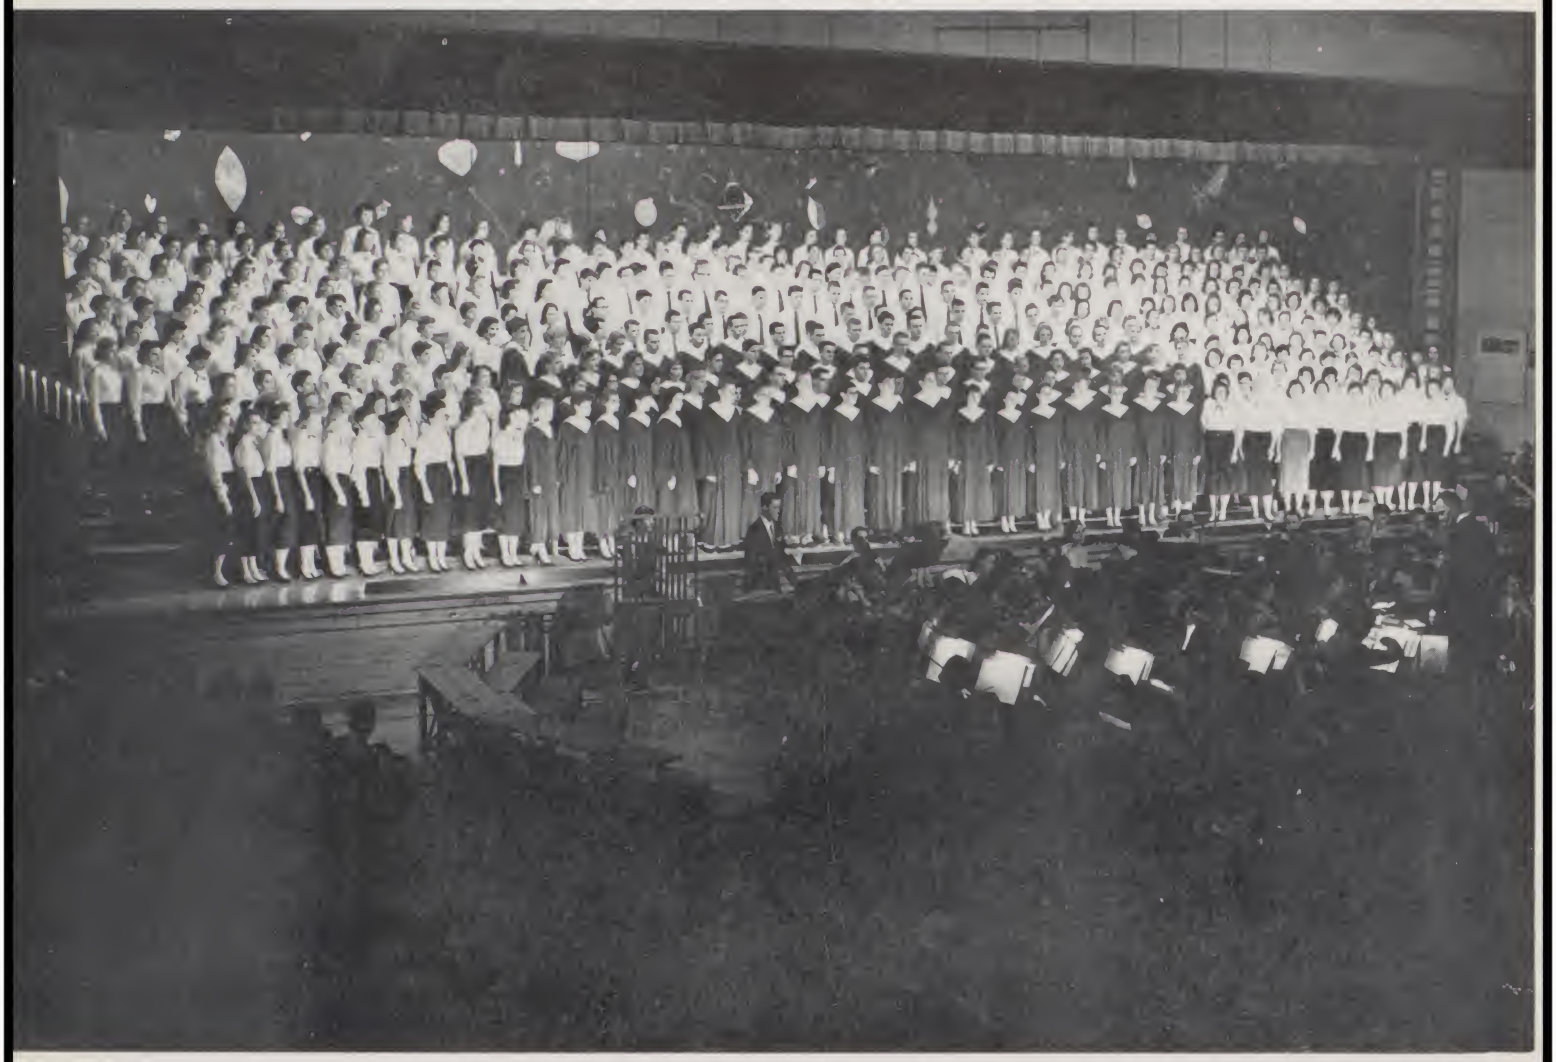
Ed Jaster, star fullback, plunges through the Oak Park line for a touchdown.

CHRISTMAS VESPERS AND "PINE PARADISE" HIGHLIGHT



The three hundred members of the combined choral groups, directed by Mr. Earle Auge, sing "O Come All Ye Faithful."

Christmas at Nilehi is one tradition that we hope will not be affected by the "new look"! At Christmas Vespers, three hundred voices blending in the traditional Christmas hymns of "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "Silent Night" inspired the holiday audience with a feeling of "peace on earth, good will to men." Climax of the program was everyone's singing "Joy to the World" and the finale of the "Hallelujah Chorus" sung by the combined choral groups. And what could be a merrier part of the Christmas season than getting out of school for two whole weeks? With cokes, doughnuts, dancing, and, of course, a Christmas tree, homerooms celebrated on the last day of school before the holidays. Looking forward to parties and the annual Christmas dance "Pine Paradise", we put down our books to think of nothing but our glorious vacation. Three hundred couples, many of them alumni home for the holidays, waltzed to "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas," played by Howard Leroy and his orchestra. The pungent, piney smell of the snow-laden tree in the center of the dance floor set the mood for this "Pine Paradise." This, then, is the warm tradition of Christmas at Nilehi — holly and mistletoe, singing and dancing, laughter and happiness!

THE HOLIDAYS

Charlene Levine and Mel Arbit arrive at "Pine Paradise," highlight of the Christmas season.

Sherwin Landerman, Bobbi Young, Sherrill Williamson, Terry Klunder, Ray Cohen, and Sue Rice waltz to "I'm in the Mood for Love" before the snow-white tree which inspired the theme "Pine Paradise."

CIRCUS CAPERS RIVALS

The two "inseparable sisters" of Reflections were Fern Chapman and Sandy Glass. The man who nearly came between them is Mike Skol.

With the color, laughter, thrills and chills to rival even Ringling Bros., Barnum, and Bailey's extravaganza, CIRCUS CAPERS OF 1958 came to Nilehi. The "big show" was complete down to the lion, savage ape, and death defying "man on the flying trapeze."

Introducing the acts was the dashing ringmaster Gary Krauss. The three winning acts, chosen by Miss Elaine M. Zold, director of The Mar Studio of the Dance, Mrs. Van Allen Bradley of the Lincolnwood Little Theatre, and Mr. Lester Netzky, director of the Tom Thumb Players Theatre Studios, were: first place, a hillbilly trio singing "Doin' What Comes Naturally"; second place, the Off-Beats, a student band; third place, the "Last Laffs," a junior chorus line of eighteen girls.

"The Greatest Show" at Nilehi was, by far, Reflections Revelries' CIRCUS CAPERS OF 1958!

BARNUM'S BEST

The "Last Laffs," eighteen lovable clowns, received third place. Back Row: Arlene Pfaff, Joan Norberg, Lee Isel, Susie Stockmar, Barb Barabas, Kay Naylor, Dixie Nelson, Linda Hubbard. First Row: Marilyn Neuman, Linda Randel, Mary Rae Kimberlin, Karen Magner, Pat Teichert, Carolynn Kuchar, Karen Jenson.

Ringmaster Gary Krauss and the clowns made Circus Capers more colorful and realistic.

The "sultry sirens" who danced for Sultan Ali Bad (Roger Stone) are seniors. Sitting: Karen Hine, Alice Merwitz, Adrienne Lee. Kneeling: Linda Levitt, Sue Elster, Suellen Mills, Carolyn Davis, Joyce Davis. Standing: Carol Anderson and Pat Koehler.

Jill Linn, student director, decides whether or not the costumes for Carol Peterson and Pat Daniel are appropriate, while Chuck Ragland and Sue Spero look on.

Members of the Saturday night cast, Tom Conners (Mr. Waverly) and Pam Bradley (Mrs. Waverly) plan the family's trip to England with Fred Link (Tom) and Penny Johnson (Beverly).

On April 18 and 19, when the curtain opened on Nilehi's third musical production "Keep It Gay," the more than 500 students involved in the production realized that the show was well worth the eight months of planning and rehearsal.

In September a steering committee of fifteen or twenty students were given, by faculty advisors, a basic idea for a plot woven around musical selections. Three months later, a final script was drafted, announcements were sent out for tryouts, and the performers were chosen. Afternoon rehearsals began, music was placed in the music folders for the groups to practice, and the executive group (consisting of the directors of the various crews) replaced the steering group. On April 18, with a blare of trumpets and a crash of cymbals, the overture began, and another musical thrilled a capacity audience.

The plot of "Keep It Gay" concerned an over-protective father trying to keep his daughter from becoming engaged. By scheming and plotting, the young couple persuade the father to give his consent. Musical numbers were selected from "The King and I," "My Fair Lady," and "Me and Juliet." Jill Linn and Rick Ricordati were co-directors, assisted by Mr. Hugh McGee and Mr. Earl Auge, faculty advisors.

Co-director and male lead Rick Ricordati and Margo Calamaras (Peggy Waverly) rehearse their lines for the opening scene, while Sharon Hanley (Cynthia) and Van Bradley (Tom) wat for their cues.

Gloria Mengarelli, the romantic lead in the Friday night performance, admires the poodle held by Sandy Eggert (Cynthia), while Nancy McAvoy (Hazel) checks the length of Gloria's formal.

Sue Spero (Beverly) and Fred Link (Tom) follow Rod Swanson (The Earl of Westbrook) as he takes a "turn about the deck" as part of his daily exercise.

TRUMPET OF RALPH MARTERIE IS FEATURED AT THE 1958 PROM

Flowers and frills, white coat and tie: Prom Queen Beth Williamson and King Ted Swanson rule over the 1957 Prom.

White coat, black tie, fluff of net, flowers, and a bid for a beau and his belle! May 29 was the Prom, the social event climaxing not only the year 1958, but four years of life at Nilehi.

The lilting strains of "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody", played by Ralph Marterie and his orchestra, and the hush of the crowd in the Grand Ballroom of the Sherman Hotel heralded the entrance of the Prom Queen and King, preceded by Bob Dilg, Junior Cabinet Chairman in charge of the coronation. The hush was broken by the applause of the crowd as the crowned Queen and her partner waltzed alone. Then, following the Grand March, we began to drift away to such glamorous night spots as the Hilton, the Palmer House, and the Chez Paree.

Dawn found us at home breakfasting on ham and scrambled eggs before taking off for Crystal Lake or Lake Geneva for a day of sunning and swimming and reminiscing of our magic moments now only a memory.

Is the "New Look" the "Old Look"? Art Wittkamp and Janet Minors use the theme of the Roaring Twenties for their Prom campaign.

"YOUTH IS A WAVE ROLLING AWAY

Mr. Keith Hertweck, assistant principal of the East Division, addresses the seniors at the traditional class breakfast in June.

IN ALL DIRECTIONS"

The quiet peace of the starlit summer evening is shattered by the full notes of "Pomp and Circumstance." The tiring hours of rehearsal in the hot June sun are over; the camaraderie of the class breakfast, the laughter over the class will and prophecy, the choir singing the "Halls of Ivy" seem ages ago. The last processional of the class of 1958 begins. Such a brief moment, to cover that short distance to the stage where Dr. Rinehart, Mr. Ohlson, and Mr. Wise of the Board of Education wait to award us our diplomas before proud parents and friends. But how many thousand moments, some happy, some sad, have made this one a reality. . . .

Our name is called, the diploma is ours, and suddenly we know the meaning of Robert Nathan's lines:

. . . Youth is a wave rolling away in all directions,
Part of it to break against rocks, or die on the beaches,
Or in the great calms —
And yet . . . the wave itself must rush on, foaming, far out into the darkness,
Into the darkness . . .
Forever rising forever breaking . . .

Climax of four years of study is the moment when Dr. Rinehart confers the hard-earned diploma.

PORTRAITS

HERE THEY ARE . . . THE "NO-NONSENSE KIDS" OF NILEHI, 1958

Pulling taffy dates back to Grandma's day, but Alice Merwitz, Bill Ahlberg, Gloria Mengarelli, Gary Krauss, and Penny Boom find it more fun than a game of Scrabble.

TODAY'S SENIOR SEEKS SECURITY AFTER GRADUATION

Are today's seniors alike or different from those of Dad's time? One might be surprised to find how similar our Tab Hunter tintype and Mother's "Sheik of Araby" are. For example, our seniors are still setting the styles on campus, but instead of the baggy, waistless dresses, raccoon coats and knickers, we display our slim-fitting, buckled Ivy League clothes. It is still the senior boy and girl who are Prom King and Queen, although they do not dance to the Charleston, but rather the Cha Cha Cha. The seniors also, still provide the school's leaders. The areas have changed slightly though, for instead of Sergeant of the R. O. T. C. or a member of the Dean's Roundtable, we are Reflections editors or S. S. O. officers. Although the seniors of today are in many ways like the seniors of thirty years ago, they differ from the "lost generation" of F. Scott Fitzgerald in their goals. The seniors of the 1920's dreamed of a "Slow Boat to China" or a screen test after graduation; the senior of 1958 dreams of a college education, a good position, and a family. Seniors of today seek security after graduation, not excitement and world fame.

Diane Courtright discovers that her advanced courses will keep her busy until graduation as she plunges into the stack of books needed for her honors reading course.

"GRADUATION MEANS GOOD BYE"...

JUNIORS WORRY OVER COLLEGE ENTRANCE

In many ways the junior of today is very different from his counterpart of the 1920's. In that "rah rah" period a boy going to that big event that marks the climax of every junior year, the Prom, picked up his girl in Dad's Stutz Bear Cat. The dance was held in the high school gym where stag lines were considered "the thing," and the Charleston and Big Apple were the dance craze. Later, the flapper and her date found their way to the Edgewater Beach Hotel's Black Cat Room or Cooley's Cupboard. After a bite to eat and a good night kiss, that glorious evening came to an end. Today, this couple rides in a Thunderbird, dances at the Sherman Hotel's ballroom, dines at the Chez Paree, and ends the day at four o'clock for a little sleep before the all day outing at Lake Geneva.

The junior of today also differs academically from the junior of the 1920's. Worrying about College Board exams, making National Honor Society, and being accepted by a chosen college are all major concerns not in existence thirty years ago when studies were just a necessary evil, because everyone knew life was just one big party.

SOPHOMORES GIVE LEADERSHIP TO NILEHI WEST

"Hold 'er Knute, she's a'rearin'!" Sophomores were in 1958, because, as seniors in the West Division, we felt an importance unknown in previous years. For the first time underclassmen knew the responsibility of being the hall monitors during class periods. Speaking out in Sophomore Cabinet, we improved Nilehi West by setting standards of proper dress. Acting as big brothers and sisters, we gave advice to bewildered freshmen. At the traditional assembly we presented Nilehi's Code of Ethics to the freshmen, a program climaxed by a guest speaker from the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Other activities included an after-game dance, "Mood Indigo," (its Italian theme high-lighted by pizza and cokes), which was successful as was the "Starlight Isle." Although taking more time between classes, going to Roundy's for lunch were sure signs of our increasing maturity, "the cat's meow" was driving the family car!

Mrs. Hall begins the first day of school by assigning textbooks to sophomores Bonnie Palmer, Mike Kreiter, and Tom Tobin.

FRESHMEN LIKE NEW LOOK OF HIGH SCHOOL

Away we went to high school and our life took on a "new look" quite different from the "good old days" of grade school. "Twenty-three skidoo!" might have been the latest thing in 1928, but in 1958 we quickly learned to say "Man, like wow!" Our "new look" was also a weighted look, both physical and mental, as we toted home our algebra, our English, and our Latin books to study for six weeks' exams. The Homecoming dance introduced us to that high-school "razz-ma-tazz" which inspired the Freshmen Cabinet to plan a dance "March Magic," complete with bunnies and pink streamers. We sang "Nilehi, Nilehi!" with more pride, cheered our teams to victory, and gained a pleasant feeling of belonging to this new world. Yes, we liked the "new look" of our life.

NEW TEACHER-STUDENT RELATIONSHIP IS CLOSER AND MORE CASUAL

Teachers, and musicians, Mr. Donn Wright, Frank Markus, and Leo Provost decide to show Lynda Levitt, Gerda Halbreich, and Keith Middleton what "real jazz" sounds like.

KEEPING PACE WITH THE COMPELLING FORCES OF MODERN SOCIETY IS THE CHALLENGE OF EDUCATION TODAY

Since the day the first Russian "Sputnik" was hurled into space, much discussion has ensued concerning the American public school. With it has come some honest and wholesome criticism, but this should not be confused with the almost chaotic zeal of the uninformed and the irresponsible. In our changing world, the advice to go back to the so-called "good old days" is like asking for the horse and buggy. The solution to the educational problem is an intelligent, forward look.

To gear the educational program to keep pace with the compelling forces of modern society is the real challenge of education today. This task must be accomplished in terms of the value system and historic purposes to which our people have long been committed. If we fulfill the great potential of our American ideals, the matter of competition with Soviet science, technology, and education will be dealt with realistically and effectively.

If the high school is to become one of the dynamic agencies by and through which our democratic society reconstructs itself, it must undertake the difficult task of changing traditional practices and search for a more meaningful education. Forward-looking educators have long advocated that education be evaluated constantly to determine its adequacy for our times. The present reappraisal of the American school system is welcomed, for it can lead to important advances — an educational renaissance in the United States.

Ours is the problem of making a good education better. Our schools must be dedicated to the sound education of every youth, the preservation of democracy, and the building of a lasting peace.

John Rinehart

Dr. John Rinehart, superintendent of Nilehi East and West, advocates that education be evaluated constantly to determine its adequacy for our time.

Mr. Paul Houghton, assistant superintendent, shares with Dr. Rinehart the responsibility and problems of administrating Nilehi East and West.

Dr. Lang (President) comments to other members of the Board of Education, Mr. Clyde Anderson, Mr. William Wise, Dr. John H. Speer, and Mr. Raymond Kliphardt on the growth patterns of Niles Township as set forth in a study made by Northwestern University.

PARENTS EXPRESS APPROVAL OF

Nilehi West, the new $5,000,000 building, will be ready for occupancy in September, 1958.

In 1955, the enrollment at Niles Township High School was 1810; in 1956, 2376; in 1957, 2983, an increase of twenty-five percent over the 1956 figure. A survey made by Northwestern University at the request of the Board of Education states that, "as a most conservative estimate . . . there should be a high school plant to accommodate at least 7000 students by the year 1965-66." The report further recommends that, since the school should house no more than 1800 to 2000 students, immediate steps should be taken to develop plans for a new building (a third unit) for the high school district.

Completion of Nilehi West for occupancy in the fall of 1958 and plans for this new building program have been major areas of concern for the Board of Education of the School District 219 for whom the "new look" is a matter of financing the required expansion of the physical plant.

The P.T.A. officers for 1957-1958 are Mrs. Russel Reinger (Corresponding Secretary), Mrs. Herbert Siemund (Recording Secretary), Mrs. John Grant (President), Mr. Gale Wesley and Mrs. Leonard Robb (Vice-Presidents), and Mrs. Rex Martin (Treasurer).

EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM IN P. T. A. QUESTIONAIRES

At the October 16 meeting of the P.T.A. a panel, composed of Dr. D. Lang (President of Board of Education), Dr. J. Rinehart (Superintendent), Mr. K. Hertweck and Mr. W. Bost (Principals), Mr. O. Ruyle (Guidance Counselor), Mrs. M. I. McGuire (Faculty), and Ginger Golden and Jerry Keidel (Students), discussed the results of a P.T.A. sponsored survey of parents' opinion concerning the educational program at the high school. At this time Dr. Rinehart pointed out that "The consensus is that both lay people and professional educators should join hands in outlining cooperatively the desirable objectives to be achieved," and that, "professional personnel should initiate and carry out the processes necessary to reach the goals."

In addition to the regular meetings, the P.T.A. entertained seniors and their parents at a tea on September 29. The traditional buffet for the faculty was held on November 6. On February 20 and 25 the P.T.A. sponsored Family Night at which time parents visited the school, attending their children's classes.

P.T.A. held its annual buffet dinner for faculty members on November 6. Serving themselves are Florence Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sharp, Mary Anne Booth, Helen Heitman, Joan Coon, and Lois Lamberg.

Mr. Herold Ohlsen, principal, directs the activities of the 65 teachers and 1160 students of the East Division.

About ten years ago the famous scientist, Dr. Vannevar Bush, World War II director of the Office of Scientific Research and Development, stated:

> "In order to survive, every modern world power must shape its educational processes to its national purposes."

Few of us have heard of this principle, but it was forced to our attention in the fall of 1957 when the technological leadership of the United States was spectacularly challenged by the Soviet Union.

In the wake of the jolt to our national pride, we have taken a critical look at our educational efforts and Dr. Bush's prediction has suddenly become terribly important. In taking stock of ourselves, we have found that the high school will, in the future, be in the center of the educational stage. This is so because young people must make decisions about and start preparations for their careers during their high school years. Our future leaders in technology and human affairs will be discovered in the high schools, not in the colleges and universities.

As never before in history, then, the eyes of the nation will be on its high schools. We at Niles Township High School are quite aware of our new responsibilities, and we are drawing up blueprints for putting our ideas into action.

In the months to come there will be a new emphasis on the study and the teaching of mathematics, science, English, and the foreign languages. Career counseling will rise to new importance. Students with special abilities will find, as never before, opportunities designed for their special purposes.

In our blueprints for the future, there will be room for all to benefit. Those students whose talents lie in the direction of the fine arts, the practical arts, or the social studies will find fresh challenges for study and learning fully as much as will the budding scientists and engineers. For, what we must do in these critical times is to encourage everyone to try for higher goals in education. Otherwise, we will lose the race.

OF HELPING STUDENTS REALIZE THEIR POTENTIALITIES . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Ihne and Mr. and Mrs. Hertweck were among the faculty chaperones at the Junior Prom.

As business manager, Mr. Charles Coker supervises all employees, excluding teachers, is in charge of purchasing equipment and supplies, and is responsible for all finances.

Miss T. Schweitzer, Mrs. H. McGinnis, Mrs. H. Snyder and Miss R. Hahn are members of the bookkeeping department, which takes care of purchases, payroll, and all activity money.

OFFICE STAFF IS DECENTRALIZED . . .

Stenographers, secretaries, bookkeepers, cooks, and custodians are a vitol part of Nilehi. The office staffs have expanded to accommodate the needs of the growing school and reorganized in preparation for the division into two schools. Both the East and West divisions now have a complete staff, which includes secretaries to each of the principals, bookkeepers, and a registrar. These staffs are responsible for typing and duplicating tests, bulletins, and announcements, and for keeping student records. The attendance office staff issues admits, processes anticipated absences, and checks on excessive absences or tardiness. They also issue detentions for excessive tardiness. Taking care of the switchboard, serving as receptionist, and doing clerical and bookkeeping work pertaining to purchasing of equipment are duties of the Main Office staff. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The goal of the '58 Reflections has been to portray, by contrast with the Roaring Twenties, the "New Look" of 1958 youth, their beliefs, recreation, dress, goals, and manners and morals. Sincere thanks go to Mrs. Mary Ida McGuire, sponsor of the General Staff; to Mr. George Schrock, sponsor of the Senior Section; to Mr. Koenig of the Norman King Publishing Company; and to the photographers of Root Studios. Thanks also go to the faculty and administration for their aid and cooperation. Without their assistance, this book could not have become a reality.
